 13 the best interest of the child of the parent's past or possible future deployment.

14 ➔SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 403A IS CREATED TO 15 READ AS FOLLOWS:

 6            dispute that may arise;
- 7        (f) Specify the frequency, duration, and means, including electronic means, by 12           the deploying parent is on leave or is otherwise available;

- 13       (h) Acknowledge that any party's child-support obligation cannot be modified

 17           under Sections 24 to 27 of this Act after the deploying parent returns from 18           deployment; and

 27           deployment, unless the agreement has been terminated before that time by court

1 order or modification under Section 10 of this Act. The agreement does not create

 3 authority, or limited contact in an individual to whom custodial responsibility is 4 given.

5 (2) A nonparent who has caretaking authority, decision-making authority, or limited

 22 individuals, or grants caretaking authority to one (1) individual and limited
 23 contact to another, provide a process to resolve any dispute that may arise;

24 (c) Provide for liberal communication between the deploying parent and the 25 child during deployment, including through electronic means, unless 26 contrary to the best interest of the child, and allocate any costs of 9 Act after the deploying parent returns from deployment.

10 ➔SECTION 22. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 403A IS CREATED
 11 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

12 If a court has issued an order granting caretaking authority under this article, or an

 22 parent or any nonparent to whom caretaking authority, decision-making
 23 authority, or limited contact has been granted, the court may modify or terminate 24 the grant if the modification or termination is consistent with Sections 13 to 23 of 25 this Act and it is in the best interest of the child. A modification is temporary and 26 terminates pursuant to Sections 24 to 27 of this Act after the deploying parent

22 (2) A proceeding seeking to prevent termination of a temporary order for custodial 23 responsibility is governed by law of this state other than this chapter.

24 ➔SECTION 28. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 403A IS CREATED
 25 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

26 In applying and construing the Uniform Deployed Parents Custody and Visitation Act,
 27 consideration shall be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect

1 to its subject matter among states that enact it.

2       ➔SECTION 29. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 403A IS CREATED
3 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

4 This chapter modifies, limits, or supersedes the Electronic Signatures in Global and 5 National Commerce Act, 12 U.S.C. sec. 7001 et seq., but does not modify, limit, or 6 supersede Section 101(c) of that act, 12 U.S.C. sec. 7001(c), or authorize electronic
7 delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. sec.
8 7003(b).

9       ➔SECTION 30. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 403A IS CREATED
10 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

11 This chapter does not affect the validity of a temporary court order concerning 12 custodial responsibility during deployment which was entered before the effective date
13 of this Act.

14       ➔Section 31. KRS 403.280 is amended to read as follows:

15 (1) A party to a custody proceeding may move for a temporary custody order. The 16 motion must be supported by an affidavit as provided in KRS 403.350. The court
17 may award temporary custody under the standards of KRS 403.270 after a hearing,
18 or, if there is no objection, solely on the basis of the affidavits. If the parents or a de 19 facto custodian joined under subsection (9) of this section present a temporary 20 custody agreement and mutually agreed plan for parenting time, and the court 21 confirms that the agreement adequately provides for the welfare of the child, the 22 agreement shall become the temporary custody order of the court.

23 (2) Subject to KRS 403.315, in making an order for temporary custody, there shall be a 24 presumption, rebuttable by preponderance of evidence, that it is in the best interest 25 of the child for the parents or a de facto custodian joined under subsection (9) of 26 this section to have temporary joint custody and share equally in parenting time.

27 (3) If a deviation from equal parenting time is warranted, the court shall construct a

1 parenting time schedule which maximizes the time each parent or de facto custodian
2 joined under subsection (9) of this section has with the child and is consistent with
3 ensuring the child's welfare.

4 (4) Each temporary custody order shall include specific findings of fact and conclusions
5 of law, except when the court confirms the agreement of the parties.

6 (5) Any temporary custody order shall address the circumstance in which physical 7 possession of the child will be exchanged.

8 (6) ~~Subject to KRS 403.320(4) and 403.340(5),~~ Modification of a temporary custody 9 order may be sought when there is a material and substantial change in the 10 circumstances of the parents, de facto custodian, or child.

11 (7) If a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation is dismissed, any 12 temporary custody order is vacated unless a parent or the child's custodian moves
13 that the proceeding continue as a custody proceeding and the court finds, after a 14 hearing, that the circumstances of the parents and the best interests of the child
15 require that a custody decree be issued.

16 (8) If a custody proceeding commenced in the absence of a petition for dissolution of 17 marriage or legal separation under KRS 403.822(1)(a) or (b) is dismissed, any 18 temporary custody order is vacated.

19 (9) If a court determines by clear and convincing evidence that a person is a de facto 20 custodian, the court shall join that person in the action, as a party needed for just 21 adjudication under Rule 19 of the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure.

22 ➔Section 32. KRS 403.320 is amended to read as follows:

23 (1) A parent not granted custody of the child and not awarded shared parenting time
24 under the presumption specified in KRS 403.270(2), 403.280(2), or 403.340(5)~~[(6)]~~
25 is entitled to reasonable visitation rights unless the court finds, after a hearing, that 26 visitation would endanger seriously the child's physical, mental, moral, or emotional 27 health. Upon request of either party, the court shall issue orders which are specific

1 as to the frequency, timing, duration, conditions, and method of scheduling
2 visitation and which reflect the development age of the child.

3 (2) If domestic violence and abuse, as defined in KRS 403.720, has been alleged, the 4 court shall, after a hearing, determine the visitation arrangement, if any, which 5 would not endanger seriously the child's or the custodial parent's physical, mental,
6 or emotional health.

7 (3) The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever 8 modification would serve the best interests of the child; but the court shall not 9 restrict a parent's visitation rights unless it finds that the visitation would endanger 10 seriously the child's physical, mental, moral, or emotional health.

11 ~~(4)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, any court-ordered~~
12 ~~modification of a child visitation decree, based in whole or in part on:~~

13 ~~1. The active duty of a parent or a de facto custodian as a regular member~~
14 ~~of the United States Armed Forces deployed outside the United States;~~

15 ~~or~~

16 ~~2. Any federal active duty of a parent or a de facto custodian as a member~~
17 ~~of a state National Guard or a Reserve component;~~

18 ~~—shall be temporary and shall revert back to the previous child visitation decree~~
19 ~~at the end of the deployment outside the United States or the federal active~~
20 ~~duty, as appropriate.~~

21 ~~(b) A parent or de facto custodian identified in paragraph (a) of this subsection~~
22 ~~may consent to a modification of a child visitation decree that continues past~~
23 ~~the end of the deployment outside the United States or the federal active duty,~~
24 ~~as appropriate.~~

25 ~~(5) Under circumstances where the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, it is~~ 26 ~~in the best interest of the child, any relative, by blood or affinity, that was~~ 27 ~~previously granted temporary custody pursuant to the provisions of KRS 620.090~~

1           may be granted reasonable noncustodial parental visitation rights by a Circuit Court
2           or Family Court as an intervenor or by original action. Once the relative has been 3           granted visitation pursuant to this subsection, those rights shall not be adversely 4           affected by the termination of custodial or parental rights of an individual who has 5           permanent custody of the child unless the court determines that termination of the 6           visitation rights are in the best interests of the child. The action shall be brought in 7           the county in which the temporary or permanent custody order was entered or where 8           the child resides.

9           ➔Section 33. KRS 403.340 is amended to read as follows:

10       (1) As used in this section, "custody" means sole or joint custody, whether ordered by a 11       court or agreed to by the parties.

12       (2) No motion to modify a custody decree shall be made earlier than two (2) years after 13       its date, unless the court permits it to be made on the basis of affidavits that there is 14       reason to believe that:

15       (a) The child's present environment may endanger seriously his physical, mental,
16       moral, or emotional health; or

17       (b) The custodian appointed under the prior decree has placed the child with a de 18       facto custodian.

19       (3) If a court of this state has jurisdiction pursuant to the Uniform Child Custody
20       Jurisdiction Act, the court shall not modify a prior custody decree unless after 21       hearing it finds, upon the basis of facts that have arisen since the prior decree or that 22       were unknown to the court at the time of entry of the prior decree, that a change has 23       occurred in the circumstances of the child or his custodian, and that the 24       modification is necessary to serve the best interests of the child. When determining 25       if a change has occurred and whether a modification of custody is in the best 26       interests of the child, the court shall consider the following:

27       (a) Whether the custodian agrees to the modification;

- 1 (b) Whether the child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with 2 consent of the custodian;
- 3 (c) The factors set forth in KRS 403.270(2) to determine the best interests of the 4 child;
- 5 (d) Whether the child's present environment endangers seriously his physical,
6 mental, moral, or emotional health;
- 7 (e) Whether the harm likely to be caused by a change of environment is 8 outweighed by its advantages to him; and
- 9 (f) Whether the custodian has placed the child with a de facto custodian.
- 10 (4) In determining whether a child's present environment may endanger seriously his 11 physical, mental, moral, or emotional health, the court shall consider all relevant 12 factors, including, but not limited to:
- 13 (a) The interaction and interrelationship of the child with his parent or parents, his 14 de facto custodian, his siblings, and any other person who may significantly 15 affect the child's best interests;
- 16 (b) The mental and physical health of all individuals involved;
- 17 (c) Repeated or substantial failure, without good cause as specified in KRS 18 403.240, of either parent to observe visitation, child support, or other 19 provisions of the decree which affect the child, except that modification of 20 custody orders shall not be made solely on the basis of failure to comply with 21 visitation or child support provisions, or on the basis of which parent is more 22 likely to allow visitation or pay child support;
- 23 (d) If domestic violence and abuse, as defined in KRS 403.720, is found by the 24 court to exist, the extent to which the domestic violence and abuse has 25 affected the child and the child's relationship to both parents.
- 26 ~~(5) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, any court-ordered~~
27 ~~modification of a child custody decree, based in whole or in part on:~~

1           1. ~~The active duty of a parent or a de facto custodian as a regular member~~
 2           ~~of the United States Armed Forces deployed outside the United States;~~
 3           ~~or~~

4           2. ~~Any federal active duty of a parent or a de facto custodian as a member~~
 5           ~~of a state National Guard or a Reserve component;~~

6           ~~—shall be temporary and shall revert back to the previous child custody decree~~
 7           ~~at the end of the deployment outside the United States or the federal active~~
 8           ~~duty, as appropriate.~~

9           ~~(b) A parent or de facto custodian identified in paragraph (a) of this subsection~~
 10           ~~may consent to a modification of a child custody decree that continues past the~~ 11           ~~end of the deployment outside the United States or the federal active duty, as~~ 12           ~~appropriate.~~

13       ~~(6)~~ Subject to KRS 403.315, if the court orders a modification of a child custody
 14       decree, there shall be a presumption, rebuttable by a preponderance of evidence, 15       that it is in the best interest of the child for the parents to have joint custody and 16       share equally in parenting time. If a deviation from equal parenting time is 17       warranted, the court shall construct a parenting time schedule which maximizes the 18       time each parent or de facto custodian has with the child and is consistent with 19       ensuring the child's welfare.

20       ~~(6)~~ ~~(7)~~ Attorney fees and costs shall be assessed against a party seeking modification
 21       if the court finds that the modification action is vexatious and constitutes 22       harassment.

23       ➔Section 34. KRS 403.352 is amended to read as follows:

24       (1) A parent or legal guardian of a child, by a properly executed power of attorney, as 25       established in this section and KRS 403.353, may temporarily delegate to another 26       person, named in the instrument as the attorney-in-fact, for a period not to exceed 27       one (1) year any of the traditional parental rights and responsibilities regarding care

- 1 and custody of the child except the following authorities:
- 2 (a) Consent for the child to marry;
- 3 (b) Consent for an abortion or inducement of an abortion to be performed on or 4 for the child; or
- 5 (c) The termination of parental rights to the child.
- 6 (2) A temporary delegation of rights and responsibilities under this section shall not:
- 7 (a) Operate to change or modify any parental or legal rights, obligations, or 8 authority established by an existing court order; or
- 9 (b) Deprive the parent or legal custodian of any parental or legal rights, 10 obligations, or authority regarding the custody, visitation, or support of the 11 child.
- 12 (3) The parent or legal custodian of the child shall have the authority to revoke or 13 withdraw the power of attorney authorized by this section at any time.
- 14 (4) Upon the termination, withdrawal, expiration, or revocation of the power of 15 attorney established by this section, the child shall be returned to the custody of the 16 parent or legal guardian as soon as reasonably possible.
- 17 (5) The attorney-in-fact named in the instrument as established by this section shall not 18 be compensated for serving as the attorney-in-fact pursuant to this section.
- 19 (6) Unless the power of attorney established by this section is terminated, revoked, or 20 withdrawn, the attorney-in-fact named in the instrument shall exercise parental or 21 legal authority on a continuous basis for the duration of the power of attorney 22 established by this section.
- 23 (7) (a) An attorney-in-fact properly appointed pursuant to this section and in 24 compliance with this section shall not be subject to any statutes dealing with 25 the licensing or regulation of foster care homes or other child-care facility
26 licensing statutes, and the appointment of an attorney-in-fact pursuant to this 27 section and KRS 403.353 shall not constitute an out-of-home child placement.

- 1 (b) The child or children subject to the power of attorney established in this
2 section shall not be considered placed in foster care, and the parties involved
3 in the power of attorney established in this section shall not be subject to any 4 requirements, monitoring, or other regulation for foster care or community
5 care solely because of the execution of an instrument authorized pursuant to 6 this section or KRS 403.353.
- 7 (8) Except as otherwise provided pursuant to the Kentucky Revised Statutes, the 8 execution of a power of attorney as established pursuant to this section by a parent 9 or legal guardian shall not by itself constitute evidence of abandonment, abuse, or 10 neglect, unless the parent or legal guardian fails to take custody of the child or 11 execute a new power of attorney after the one (1) year time limit has elapsed.
12 Nothing in this subsection shall be interpreted to prevent an investigation of abuse, 13 neglect, abandonment, other mistreatment of a child, or other crime.
- 14 (9) (a) A parent or legal guardian shall not execute a power of attorney pursuant to 15 this section or KRS 403.353 with the intention of permanently avoiding or 16 divesting himself or herself of parental or legal responsibility for the care of 17 the child or for any other illegal or fraudulent purpose.
- 18 (b) An attorney-in-fact or prospective attorney-in-fact designated or potentially 19 designated pursuant to this section or KRS 403.353 shall not demand or 20 request that a parent or guardian enter into an instrument established pursuant 21 to this section or KRS 403.353 as a result of any person's financial or other 22 debt or obligation, or for any other illegal or fraudulent purpose.
- 23 (c) A power of attorney established pursuant to this section and KRS 403.353
24 shall not be used solely for the purpose of establishing residency for school
25 attendance purposes unless the child actually resides with the attorney-in-fact
26 in the school district where the enrollment is sought, or the child otherwise 27 resides in the district.

1 (d) Violation of this section shall be punishable under Kentucky law.

2 (10) If a parent or legal guardian of a child chooses to delegate powers pursuant to this 3 section regarding the care and custody of the child to a person or persons other than 4 a grandparent, aunt, uncle, or adult sibling of the child, a full criminal history and 5 child abuse and neglect background check shall be conducted on the person or 6 persons prior to the execution of the power of attorney authorized by this section.
7 The results of the background check shall be kept with the instrument establishing 8 the power of attorney pursuant to this section. A child shall not be placed with an 9 individual whose background check indicates that he or she has a criminal history of 10 child abuse and neglect.

11 ~~(11) [A parent who is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, including any~~ 12 ~~reserve component thereof, or the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and~~
13 ~~Atmospheric Administration, or the Public Health Service of the United States~~
14 ~~Department of Health and Human Services detailed by proper authority for duty~~
15 ~~with the Armed Forces of the United States, or a parent who is otherwise required to~~ 16 ~~enter or serve in the active military service of the United States under a call or order~~
17 ~~of the President of the United States or to serve on state active duty, may delegate~~
18 ~~his or her traditional parental rights and responsibilities via a power of attorney~~
19 ~~established in this section for a period longer than one (1) year while on active duty~~
20 ~~service. The term of delegation permitted by this subsection shall not exceed the~~ 21 ~~term of active duty service plus thirty (30) days.~~

22 ~~(12)~~ Any period of time during which a child resides with an attorney-in-fact under an 23 unexpired and valid power of attorney properly executed pursuant to this section 24 and KRS 403.353, shall not be included in determining whether the child has 25 resided with the attorney-in-fact for the minimum period required to be designated a 26 de facto custodian pursuant to KRS 403.270(1).

27 ➔Section 35. KRS 403.353 is amended to read as follows:

1 (1) A power of attorney established pursuant to this section, ~~and~~ KRS 403.352, and 2 KRS Chapter 403A shall be substantially in the following form, and may include 3 other specific directions which are in accordance with accepted legal practice and 4 not specifically prohibited by any other statute. If any other specific directions are 5 held by a court of appropriate jurisdiction to be invalid, that invalidity shall not 6 affect the power of attorney or other provisions established in this section, ~~and~~ 7 KRS 403.352, and KRS Chapter 403A.
