(1) Except as may otherwise be provided by this chapter, every employer shall pay to each of his employees wages at a rate of not less than five dollars and eighty-five cents ($5.85) an hour beginning on June 26, 2007, not less than six dollars and fifty-five cents ($6.55) an hour beginning July 1, 2008, and not less than seven dollars and twenty-five cents ($7.25) an hour beginning July 1, 2009. If the federal minimum hourly wage as prescribed by 29 U.S.C. sec. 206(a)(1) is increased in excess of the minimum hourly wage in effect under this subsection, the minimum hourly wage under this subsection shall be increased to the same amount, effective on the same date as the federal minimum hourly wage rate. If the state minimum hourly wage is increased to the federal minimum hourly wage, it shall include only the federal minimum hourly rate prescribed in 29 U.S.C. sec. 206(a)(1) and shall not include other wage rates or conditions, exclusions, or exceptions to the federal minimum hourly wage rate. In addition, the increase to the federal minimum hourly wage rate does not extend or modify the scope or coverage of the minimum wage rate required under this chapter.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, for any employee engaged in an occupation in which he customarily and regularly receives more than thirty dollars ($30) per month in tips from patrons or others, the employer may pay as a minimum not less than the hourly wage rate required to be paid a tipped employee under the federal minimum hourly wage law as prescribed by 29 U.S.C. sec. 203. The employer shall establish by his records that for each week where credit is taken, when adding tips received to wages paid, not less than the minimum rate prescribed in 29 U.S.C. sec. 203 was received by the employee. No employer shall use all or part of any tips or gratuities received by employees toward the payment of the statutory minimum hourly wage as required by 29 U.S.C. sec. 203. Nothing, however, shall prevent employees from entering into an agreement to divide tips or gratuities among themselves.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) and (2) of this section, when a state of emergency is declared by the Governor of Kentucky resulting in the designation of essential employees, every employer with a gross revenue of at least one billion dollars ($1,000,000,000) shall pay to each employee deemed an essential employee an hourly hazard wage rate not less than fifteen dollars ($15) per hour for forty (40) hours of working time in any week and one and a half (1-1/2) times that essential employee's regular hourly wage for each hour of working time in excess of forty (40) hours in any week. This overtime rate shall not include any individual employed in a bona fide executive or professional capacity, effective on the effective date of this Act.

(a) The hazard wage created by this subsection shall match the percentage increase of the Consumer Price Index, CPI-U, U.S. city average, not seasonally adjusted as calculated by the U.S. Department of Labor for the twelve (12) months preceding the previous September 1.

(b) If the regular wage of a qualifying essential employee in the Commonwealth or federal prevailing wage for government contractors in the same class or function area is higher than the hazard wage set under this subsection, the worker shall be paid at the higher rate.

(c) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to entitle an essential employee to both his or her regular wage and the hazard wage triggered by the declaration of an emergency.

Section 3. Whereas the impact of the state of emergency in response to COVID-19 on Kentucky's essential employees is of the utmost importance, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act takes effect upon its passage and approval by the Governor or upon its otherwise becoming a law.
