A RESOLUTION honoring President Donald J. Trump upon the completion of his term as the 45th President of the United States.

WHEREAS, President Donald J. Trump was elected to be President of the United States on November 8, 2016; and

WHEREAS, President Trump made great improvements to the United States during his time as President; and

WHEREAS, one such example of President Trump's commitment to the well-being of American people is President Trump's signing of two executive orders, two proclamations, and eight bills related to human trafficking, including Executive Order 13903 on Combating Human Trafficking and Online Child Exploitation, which, among other things, designated an employee position at the White House dedicated solely to work on issues related to combating human trafficking; and

WHEREAS, President Trump also succeeded in bringing troops home from overseas, ending his term with about 2,500 soldiers in Afghanistan, down from 8,400 in January of 2017, and 98,000 in the Afghanistan War's peak in 2011; and

WHEREAS, President Trump used his influence as President to speak out against excessive foreign aid being distributed to the detriment of the American people, including disapproving of the provisions for foreign aid included in the Bipartisan-Bicameral Omnibus COVID Relief Deal, saying that those appropriations to send American money outside of the country had no place in a bill designed to ease the suffering of American citizens in the midst of a global pandemic, requesting that excessive foreign aid be reduced in every budget proposal, and reducing foreign aid overall and keeping that money in the United States, such as reducing foreign aid to China by $32 million in 2020;
and

WHEREAS, President Trump moved the United States embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem and has brokered peace deals normalizing the relations of several regional countries with Israel, raising the number of countries in the Middle East which recognize WHEREAS, in order to avoid American money, manpower, and resources being sent to support organizations whose interests are not always aligned with those of the United States, President Trump withdrew from the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization in 2017, the United Nations Human Rights Council in 2018, and the World Health Organization in 2020, as well as from the United Nations Arms Trade Treaty; and WHEREAS, all of President Trump's above-mentioned actions have had a positive effect on the American people and the resilience of American government; NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. The members of the Senate rightfully commend President Donald J.
Trump for his dedication to humanitarian efforts and the progress he made while President.

Section 2. When the Senate adjourns this day, it does so in honor of President Donald J. Trump.

Section 3. The Clerk of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to the Kentucky Congressional Delegation, the office of Senator Adrienne Southworth, and the Office of the Former President, 1100 S. Ocean Blvd, Palm Beach, FL 33480.
