UNOFFICIAL COPY

| Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: Section 1. KRS 196.173 is amended to read as follows: (1) For the purposes of this section: (a) "Certified professional midwifery services" has the same meaning as in KRS 314.400; and (b) "Doula services" means services provided by a trained doula who provides physical, emotional, and educational support, but not medical care, to mothers before, during, and after childbirth. Doula services include but are not limited to: 11 Support and assistance during labor and childbirth; 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 4. Parenting education; and 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated from her child. (2) Except as provided in subsection (3)f(2)] of this section, an inmate housed in a jail, penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. (3)f(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and credible: | 1 | AN ACT relating to pregnant inmates. |
|---|----|---|
| (1) For the purposes of this section: (a) "Certified professional midwiferv services" has the same meaning as in KRS 314.400; and (b) "Doula services" means services provided by a trained doula who provides physical, emotional, and educational support, but not medical care, to mothers before, during, and after childbirth. Doula services include but are not limited to: 11 1. Support and assistance during labor and childbirth; 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 4. Parenting education; and 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated from her child. (2) Except as provided in subsection (3)f(2)f of this section, an inmate housed in a jail, penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. (3)f(2)f (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 2 | Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: |
| 5 (a) "Certified professional midwifery services" has the same meaning as in 6 KRS 314.400; and 7 (b) "Doula services" means services provided by a trained doula who provides 8 physical, emotional, and educational support, but not medical care, to 9 mothers before, during, and after childbirth. Doula services include but are 10 not limited to: 11 I. Support and assistance during labor and childbirth; 12 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; 13 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 14 4. Parenting education; and 15 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated 16 from her child. 17 (2) 18 penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or 19 reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs 20 in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3)H(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be 21 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means | 3 | → Section 1. KRS 196.173 is amended to read as follows: |
| 6 KRS 314.400; and 7 (b) "Doula services" means services provided by a trained doula who provides 8 physical, emotional, and educational support, but not medical care, to 9 mothers before, during, and after childbirth. Doula services include but are 10 not limited to: 11 1. Support and assistance during labor and childbirth; 12 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; 13 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 14 4. Parenting education; and 15 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated 16 from her child. 17 (2) 18 penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or 19 reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs 20 in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3)f(2)f (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be 22 pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstanc | 4 | (1) For the purposes of this section: |
| (b) "Doula services" means services provided by a trained doula who provides 8 physical, emotional, and educational support, but not medical care, to 9 mothers before, during, and after childbirth. Doula services include but are 10 not limited to: 11 1. Support and assistance during labor and childbirth; 12 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; 13 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 14 4. Parenting education; and 15 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated 16 from her child. 17 (2) Except as provided in subsection (3)f(2)f) of this section, an inmate housed in a jail, 18 penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or 19 reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs 20 in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3)f(2)f (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be 22 pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpart | 5 | (a) "Certified professional midwifery services" has the same meaning as in |
| 8 physical, emotional, and educational support, but not medical care, to 9 mothers before, during, and after childbirth. Doula services include but are 10 not limited to: 11 1. Support and assistance during labor and childbirth; 12 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; 13 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 14 4. Parenting education; and 15 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated 16 from her child. 17 (2) 18 penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or 19 reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs 20 in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3):[(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be 22 pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that 25 reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 6 | KRS 314.400; and |
| 9 mothers before, during, and after childbirth. Doula services include but are 10 not limited to: 11 I. Support and assistance during labor and childbirth; 12 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; 13 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 14 4. Parenting education; and 15 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated 16 from her child. 17 (2) 18 penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or 19 reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs 20 in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3)f(2)f 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during transport to a medical facility 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that 25 reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 7 | (b) ''Doula services'' means services provided by a trained doula who provides |
| 10 not limited to: 11 1. Support and assistance during labor and childbirth; 12 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; 13 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 14 4. Parenting education; and 15 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated 16 from her child. 17 (2) 18 penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or 19 reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs 20 in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3)f(2)f (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be 22 pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that 25 reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 8 | physical, emotional, and educational support, but not medical care, to |
| 11 1. Support and assistance during labor and childbirth; 12 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; 13 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 14 4. Parenting education; and 15 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated 16 from her child. 17 (2) 18 penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or 19 reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs 20 in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3)f(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be 22 pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that 25 reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 9 | mothers before, during, and after childbirth. Doula services include but are |
| 12 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; 13 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 14 4. Parenting education; and 15 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated 16 from her child. 17 (2) 18 penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or 19 reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs 20 in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3)[(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be 22 pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that 25 reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 10 | not limited to: |
| 13 3. Breastfeeding assistance; 14 4. Parenting education; and 15 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated 16 from her child. 17 (2) 18 penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or 19 reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs 20 in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3):(2): 22 pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that 25 reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 11 | 1. Support and assistance during labor and childbirth; |
| 14 4. Parenting education; and 15 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated 16 from her child. 17 (2) Except as provided in subsection (3)f(2)f of this section, an inmate housed in a jail, 18 penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or 19 reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs 20 in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3)f(2)f 23 (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that 25 reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 12 | 2. Prenatal and postpartum education; |
| 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated from her child. (2) Except as provided in subsection (3)f(2)f of this section, an inmate housed in a jail, penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. (3)f(2)f (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 13 | 3. Breastfeeding assistance; |
| 16 from her child. 17 (2) Except as provided in subsection (3)[(2)] of this section, an inmate housed in a jail, penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. 21 (3)[(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 14 | 4. Parenting education; and |
| (2) Except as provided in subsection (3)[(2)] of this section, an inmate housed in a jail, penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. (3)[(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 15 | 5. Support in the event that a woman has been or will become separated |
| penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. (3)[(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 16 | from her child. |
| reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. (3){(2)} (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 17 | (2) Except as provided in subsection (3) [(2)] of this section, an inmate housed in a jail, |
| in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. (3)[(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 18 | penitentiary, or local or state correctional or detention facility, residential center, or |
| 21 (3)[(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be 22 pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility 23 or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. 24 (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that 25 reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 19 | reentry center who is known to be pregnant shall be restrained solely with handcuffs |
| pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 20 | in front of her body unless further restraint is required to protect herself or others. |
| or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 21 | (3) [(2)] (a) Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no inmate who is known to be |
| (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 22 | pregnant shall be restrained during labor, during transport to a medical facility |
| 25 reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and | 23 | or birthing center for delivery, or during postpartum recovery. |
| | 24 | (b) As used in this subsection, "extraordinary circumstance" means that |
| 26 credible: | 25 | reasonable grounds exist to believe the inmate presents an immediate and |
| | 26 | credible: |
| 1. Serious threat of hurting herself, staff, or others; or | 27 | 1. Serious threat of hurting herself, staff, or others; or |

UNOFFICIAL COPY

| 1 | | | 2. Risk of escape that cannot be reasonably minimized through any method |
|----|-------------|------------|---|
| 2 | | | other than restraints. |
| 3 | (4) | (a) | An inmate housed in a jail, penitentiary, or local or state correctional or |
| 4 | | | detention facility, residential center, or reentry center who is known to be |
| 5 | | | pregnant or who has given birth in the last six (6) weeks shall be provided |
| 6 | | | reasonable accommodations for the provision of available certified |
| 7 | | | professional midwifery services or doula services. |
| 8 | | (b) | Persons providing certified professional midwifery services or doula services |
| 9 | | | shall be: |
| 10 | | | 1. Granted appropriate facility access; |
| 11 | | | 2. Allowed to attend and provide assistance during labor and childbirth |
| 12 | | | where feasible; and |
| 13 | | | 3. Granted access to the inmate's relevant health care information if the |
| 15 | | | |