(b) A school district employee that violates paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with KRS 161.120(l).

(c) 1. Any citizen residing within or having a student enrolled in a local school district may file a complaint with the Attorney General for an alleged violation of paragraph (a) of this subsection.

2. If the Attorney General finds, based on preponderance of the evidence, that a local board of education, school council, or employee of a school district or public charter school violated paragraph (a) of this subsection, the Attorney General shall:

a. Send notice of the violation to the commissioner of the Department of Education, the local board of education, the school council if one exists, and the principal of the public school or public charter school;

b. If the violation involves a certified employee of a school district or public charter school, send notice of the identity of the certified employee and the nature of the violation to the Education Professional Standards Board; and

2. The prepared remarks of the student are not altered before delivery, except in a viewpoint-neutral manner, unless requested by the student. However, student speakers shall not engage in speech that is obscene, vulgar, offensively lewd, or indecent; and

3. If the content of the student's speech is such that a reasonable observer may perceive affirmative school sponsorship or endorsement of the student speaker's religious or political viewpoint, the school shall communicate, in writing, orally, or both, that the student's speech does not reflect the endorsement, sponsorship, position, or expression of the school;

(b) Religious and political organizations are allowed equal access to public forums on the same basis as nonreligious and nonpolitical organizations; and

c) No recognized religious or political student organization is hindered or discriminated against in the ordering of its internal affairs, selection of leaders and members, defining of doctrines and principles, and resolving of organizational disputes in the furtherance of its mission, or in its determination that only persons committed to its mission should conduct these activities.

Consistent with its obligations to respect the rights secured by the Constitutions of the United States of America and the Commonwealth of Kentucky, a local board of education shall permit public schools in the district to sponsor artistic or theatrical programs that advance students' knowledge of society's cultural and religious heritage, as well as provide opportunities for students to study and perform a wide range of music, literature, poetry, and drama.

(c) The superintendent shall investigate and take appropriate action to ensure that the rights of the student are resolved within thirty (30) days of the date of the student's parent or legal guardian pursue any other legal action.
