

1 A RESOLUTION supporting the Hyde Amendment and encouraging its adoption
2 by the United States Congress in its 2022 session.

4 annually by the United States Congress for over 40 years, and signed into law by 5 presidents of both parties, that prohibits the use of taxpayer dollars to fund abortions; and

7 provisions throughout federal and state law that prohibit public funding of abortion in the

9 WHEREAS, the Supreme Court has held that the Hyde Amendment places no 10 obstacle to women seeking abortions but rather encourages alternative activity deemed in

12 WHEREAS, a Marist Poll conducted in 2019 found that 80 percent of Americans 13 want substantial restrictions on abortion and a solid majority oppose taxpayer funding for 14 abortion; and

15 WHEREAS, the Kentucky General Assembly supports policies designed to protect 16 citizens' religious freedom in all areas, but particularly in how their taxes are 17 appropriated;
