 3 shall render judgment for unpaid rent.

4 (6) If rent has not been paid into escrow under this section and the court determines 5 that the landlord's noncompliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act 6 materially interferes with the health or safety of a tenant or immediate family 7 member or the use and enjoyment of the premises by the tenant or an immediate

 25 tenant with the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act or acceptance by the landlord 26 of the tenant's performance that varies from the terms of the lease or Sections 1 27 to 61 of this Act is a waiver of the landlord's right to terminate the lease for the

1 noncompliance, unless the landlord and tenant otherwise agree after the 2 noncompliance occurs.

3 (2) This section does not prevent a landlord or tenant from exercising a right under 4 Section 37 of this Act to terminate a periodic tenancy.

 6 SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

7 (1) Distraint for rent is abolished.

8 (2) A landlord shall not create, perfect, or enforce a lien or security interest on a 11 security interest created or perfected before the effective date of this Act.

12 ➔SECTION 33. KRS 383.670 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW 13 SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

14 (1) In this section, "reasonable efforts" means steps a landlord would take to rent a 15 dwelling unit if the unit is vacated at the end of a term, including showing the 16 unit to a prospective tenant or advertising the availability of the unit.

17 (2) A tenant abandons a dwelling unit if:

18 (a) The tenant delivers possession of the unit to the landlord before the end of 19 the term by returning the keys or other means of access or otherwise 20 notifies the landlord the unit has been vacated; or 21 (b) Rent that is due was not paid for at least five (5) days and the tenant has:

22 1. Vacated the unit by removing substantially all of the tenant's personal 23 property from the unit and the premises; and 25 by words or conduct that the tenant has no intention to return to the 26 unit.

27 (3) If a tenant abandons the dwelling unit before the end of the term of the lease, the 1 landlord may recover possession of the unit without a court order and may:

2 (a) Accept the tenant's abandonment of the unit by notice in a record given to 13 has a duty to mitigate by making a reasonable effort to rent the unit, subject to 14 the following rules:

15 (a) The landlord's duty to mitigate does not take priority over the landlord's 16 right to lease first any other dwelling unit the landlord has available to 17 lease;

18 (b) If the landlord leases the abandoned unit to another person for a term 19 beginning before the expiration of the term of the lease of the abandoning 20 tenant, the lease terminates as of the date of the new tenancy and the 21 landlord may recover actual damages from the abandoning tenant;

22 (c) If the landlord makes a reasonable effort to lease the abandoning tenant's 23 unit but is unable to lease it or is able to lease it only for an amount less 24 than the rent payable by the abandoning tenant, the landlord may recover 25 actual damages from the abandoning tenant;

26 (d) If the landlord fails to make a reasonable effort to lease the abandoning 27 tenant's unit, the lease terminates as of the date of abandonment, and the 1 landlord and tenant are liable to each other under the lease or Sections 1 to 2 61 of this Act only for a noncompliance with the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of 3 this Act which occurred before the date of abandonment; and 4 a periodic tenancy, the landlord may bring an action for possession. If the 5 tenant's holdover is willful, the landlord may recover three (3) times the periodic 6 rent or three (3) times the actual damages, whichever is greater.

7 (2) Unless a landlord and tenant otherwise agree in a record, if the tenant remains in 8 possession with the landlord's consent after expiration of a tenancy for a fixed 10 expired lease.

11 ➔SECTION 39. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO 12 READ AS FOLLOWS:

13 (1) If a sole tenant under a lease dies before the end of a tenancy for a fixed term or

 26 Act in the case of a periodic tenancy. Notice sent to a surviving spouse or partner 27 must also state that the surviving spouse or partner has twenty (20) days after

 4 domestic partner who resides in the dwelling unit, notice to terminate a lease 5 under subsection (2) of this section shall not be given before the time specified in 22 from liability under Section 21 of this Act.

 24 READ AS FOLLOWS:

25 (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, evidence that a 26 tenant engaged in conduct described in subsection (1) of Section 40 of this Act 27 within six (6) months before the landlord's alleged retaliatory conduct creates a

1 rebuttable presumption that the purpose of the landlord's conduct was 2 retaliation.

3 (2) A presumption does not arise under subsection (1) of this section if the tenant 4 engaged in conduct described in subsection (1) of Section 40 of this Act after the 5 landlord gave the tenant notice of the landlord's intent to engage in conduct 6 described in subsection (1)(a) to (e) of Section 40 of this Act.

7 (3) A landlord may rebut a presumption under subsection (1) of this section by a 8 preponderance of evidence showing that the landlord had sufficient justification 9 for engaging in the conduct that created the presumption and would have 10 engaged in the conduct in the same manner and at the same time whether or not 11 the tenant engaged in conduct described in subsection (1) of Section 40 of this 12 Act.

 14 READ AS FOLLOWS:

26 animal to an animal control officer, humane society, or other person willing to 27 care for the animal.

1 (7) Unless a landlord and tenant otherwise agree, if the tenant fails to contact the 2 landlord or retrieve personal property as provided in subsection (4) of this 3 section, the property is deemed abandoned and:

4 (a) If a sale is economically feasible, the landlord shall sell the property and, 5 after deducting the reasonable cost of inventorying, moving, storing, and 6 disposing of the property, shall treat the proceeds as part of the tenant's 7 security deposit; or

8 (b) If a sale is not economically feasible, the landlord may dispose of the 9 property in any manner the landlord considers appropriate.

10 (8) A landlord that complies with this section is not liable to the tenant or another 11 person for a claim arising from removal of personal property from the premises.

12 (9) A landlord that recovers possession of a dwelling unit under a court order is not 13 required to comply with this section. If a landlord that recovers possession under 22 act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault if the victim 23 continues to reside in the dwelling unit, the tenant, without the necessity of the 26 vacates the dwelling unit on or before that date; and 27 (b) The tenant is not liable for rent accruing after the lease terminates or other

5 (a) The tenant who gave notice under subsection (2) of this section is released 6 from the lease as of the date specified in the notice if the tenant vacates the

 9 tenants;

10 (b) The tenant released from the lease is not liable to the landlord or any other 11 person for rent accruing after the tenant's release or actual damages 12 resulting from the tenant's release;

 17 tenant is otherwise entitled under Section 59 of this Act until the lease 18 terminates with respect to all tenants.

19 (5) This section does not apply if a tenant seeking the release from the lease is a 20 perpetrator.

21 ➔SECTION 49. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO
 22 READ AS FOLLOWS:

23 If a tenant is released from a lease under Section 48 of this Act, the landlord:

22 violence, stalking, or sexual assault if the tenant or family member 23 continues to reside in the unit; and 24 5. A statement that the representations in the verification are true and 11 member will suffer psychological harm or a further act of domestic 12 violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault if the tenant or 13 family member continues to reside in the dwelling unit; and 14 4. A statement that the party, based on the tenant's verification, believes 15 the tenant and understands that the verification may be used as the 16 ground for releasing the tenant from a lease or terminating the 17 tenant's interest under the lease.

18 (2) If a verification given to a landlord by a tenant under subsection (1)(c) of Section 19 48 of this Act contains a representation of a material fact known by the tenant to 20 be false, the landlord may recover an amount not to exceed three (3) times the 21 periodic rent or three (3) times actual damages, whichever is greater.

22 ➔SECTION 51. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO
 23 READ AS FOLLOWS:

24 (1) A landlord may recover from a perpetrator actual damages resulting from a 25 tenant's exercise of a right under Section 48 of this Act and, if the perpetrator is a 26 party to the lease who remains in possession of the dwelling unit, hold the 27 perpetrator liable on the lease for all obligations under the lease or Sections 1 to 1 61 of this Act.

2 (2) A perpetrator shall not recover actual damages or other relief resulting from the 3 exercise of a right by a tenant under Section 48 of this Act or a landlord under 4 this section.

5 ➔SECTION 52. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO
6 READ AS FOLLOWS:

7 (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) of this section, if a tenant or immediate family 8 member is a victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or 9 sexual assault and the tenant has a reasonable fear that the perpetrator or other 10 person acting on the perpetrator's behalf may attempt to gain access to the 11 dwelling unit, the tenant, without the landlord's consent, may cause the locks or 12 other security devices for the unit to be changed or rekeyed in a professional 13 manner and shall give a key or other means of access for the new locks or 14 security devices to the landlord and any other tenant, other than the perpetrator, 15 that is a party to the lease.

16 (2) If locks or other security devices are changed or rekeyed under subsection (1) of 17 this section, the landlord may change or rekey them, at the tenant's expense, to 18 ensure compatibility with the landlord's master key or other means of access or 19 otherwise accommodate the landlord's reasonable commercial needs.

20 (3) If a perpetrator is a party to the lease, locks or other security devices shall not be 21 changed or rekeyed under subsection (1) of this section unless a court order, 22 other than an ex parte order, expressly requires that the perpetrator vacate the 23 dwelling unit or restrains the perpetrator from contact with the tenant or 24 immediate family member and a copy of the order has been given to the landlord.

25 (4) A perpetrator shall not recover actual damages or other relief against a landlord 26 or tenant resulting from the exercise of a right by the landlord or tenant under 27 this section.

1 ➔SECTION 53. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO
2 READ AS FOLLOWS:

3 (1) On issuance of a court order requiring a perpetrator to vacate a dwelling unit 4 because of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual 5 assault, other than an ex parte order, neither the landlord nor tenant has a duty 6 to:

7 (a) Allow the perpetrator access to the unit unless accompanied by a law 8 enforcement officer; or

9 (b) Provide the perpetrator with any means of access to the unit.

10 (2) If a perpetrator is a party to the lease, on issuance of a court order requiring the 11 perpetrator to vacate the dwelling unit, other than an ex parte order, the 12 perpetrator's interest under the lease terminates, and the landlord and any 13 remaining tenant may recover from the perpetrator actual damages resulting 14 from the termination.

15 (3) Termination of a perpetrator's interest under a lease under this section does not 16 terminate the interest of any other tenant under the lease or alter the obligations 17 of any other tenant under the lease.

18 (4) A landlord is not required to return to a perpetrator whose interest under the 19 lease terminates under this section or to any remaining tenant any security 20 deposit or unearned rent until the lease terminates with respect to all tenants.

21 ➔SECTION 54. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO
22 READ AS FOLLOWS:

23 (1) If a landlord has a reasonable belief that a tenant or immediate family member is 24 the victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual 25 assault and another tenant of the same landlord who resides in the same building 26 as the tenant is the perpetrator, the landlord may terminate the perpetrator's 27 interest in the lease by giving the perpetrator notice in a record that the

- 1 perpetrator's interest will terminate immediately or on a later specified date, 2 which is not later than (30) days after notice is given. The notice must state that 3 the landlord has a reasonable belief that the perpetrator has committed an act of 4 domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault and the 5 approximate date of the act.
- 6 (2) Before giving notice to a perpetrator under subsection (1) of this section, the 7 landlord shall give notice of the landlord's intent to terminate the perpetrator's 8 interest to the tenant who was the victim of the act of domestic violence, dating 9 violence, stalking, or sexual assault or whose immediate family member was the 10 victim. This notice may be given by any means reasonably calculated to reach the 11 tenant, including oral communication, notice in a record, or notice sent to the 12 tenant at any other address at which the landlord reasonably believes the tenant 13 is located.
- 14 (3) Failure of a tenant to receive the notice of the landlord's intent to terminate the 15 perpetrator's interest under subsection (2) of this section does not affect the 16 landlord's right to terminate under this section or expose the landlord to any 17 liability.
- 18 (4) If a landlord terminates a perpetrator's interest under a lease under this section, 19 any other tenant under the lease may recover from the perpetrator actual 20 damages resulting from the termination.
- 21 (5) Termination of a perpetrator's interest under a lease under this section does not
22 terminate the interest of any other tenant under the lease or alter the obligations 23 of any other tenant under the lease.
- 24 (6) A landlord is not required to return to a perpetrator whose interest under a lease 25 is terminated under this section or to any other tenant under the lease any 26 security deposit or unearned rent until the lease terminates with respect to all 27 tenants.

1 (7) In an action between a landlord and tenant involving the right of the landlord to 2 terminate the tenant's interest under this section, the landlord must prove by a 3 preponderance of the evidence that the landlord had a reasonable belief that the 4 tenant was a perpetrator.

6 READ AS FOLLOWS:

7 (1) In this section, "tenant" includes an applicant seeking to enter into a lease with a 8 landlord.

9 (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, a landlord 10 shall not do or threaten to do any act in subsection (2) of Section 40 of this Act if 11 the landlord's purpose for engaging in the conduct is that:

12 (a) An act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault 13 committed against the tenant or immediate family member resulted in a 14 violation of the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act by the tenant; or 15 (b) A complaint of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or 16 sexual assault committed against the tenant or immediate family member 17 resulted in a law enforcement or emergency response.

18 (3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, a landlord shall not 19 refuse or threaten to refuse to rent a dwelling unit if the landlord's purpose for 20 the refusal or threat is that a tenant or an immediate family member is or has 21 been the victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual 22 assault.

23 (4) Evidence that any of the events described in subsection (2) or (3) of this section 24 occurred within six (6) months before the landlord's conduct creates a 25 presumption that the purpose of the landlord's conduct was retaliation. The 26 landlord may rebut the presumption by a preponderance of evidence showing that 27 the landlord had sufficient justification for engaging in the conduct described in

1 subsection (2) or (3) of this section and would have engaged in the conduct in the 2 same manner and at the same time regardless whether the events described in 3 subsection (2) or (3) of this section occurred.

4 (5) A landlord may terminate the lease of a tenant by giving the tenant notice in a 5 record that the lease will terminate on a date specified in the notice, which must 6 be at least thirty (30) days after notice is given if:

7 (a) Without the landlord's permission, the tenant invited a perpetrator onto the 8 premises or allowed a perpetrator to occupy the dwelling unit:

9 1. After the landlord gave the tenant notice in a record to refrain from 10 inviting the perpetrator onto the premises; or

11 2. During a time the tenant knows the perpetrator is subject to a no-12 contact court order or a court order barring the perpetrator from the 13 premises; and

14 (b) The landlord demonstrates that:

15 1. There is an actual and imminent threat to the health or safety of any 16 individual on the premises, the landlord, or the landlord's agent if the 17 lease is not terminated; or 18 2. The perpetrator has damaged the premises.

19 (6) If a landlord willfully violates subsection (2) or (3) of this section, the tenant or 20 prospective tenant may recover three (3) times the periodic rent or three (3) times 21 actual damages, whichever is greater, and:

22 (a) Terminate the lease;

23 (b) Defend an action for possession on the ground that the landlord violated 24 subsection (2) of this section; or

25 (c) Obtain appropriate injunctive relief.

26 ➔SECTION 56. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO
27 READ AS FOLLOWS:

1 (1) In Sections 56 to 60 of this Act, "bank account" means a checking, demand, 2 time, savings, passbook, or similar account maintained at a bank.

3 (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, a landlord 4 shall not require the tenant to pay or agree to pay a security deposit, prepaid rent, 5 or any combination thereof, in an amount that exceeds two (2) times the periodic 6 rent.

7 (3) The limit established in subsection (2) of this section does not include the first 8 month's rent or fees.

9 (4) Except as otherwise provided by law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, if a 10 tenant keeps a pet on the premises or is permitted by the lease to make alterations 11 to the premises, the landlord may require the tenant to pay an additional security 12 deposit in an amount commensurate with the additional risk of damage to the 13 premises.

14 ➔SECTION 57. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO
 15 READ AS FOLLOWS:

16 (1) The following apply to a landlord's interest in a security deposit:

17 (a) The landlord's interest is limited to a security interest;

18 (b) Notwithstanding law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, the landlord's 19 security interest is effective against and has priority over each creditor of 20 and transferee from the tenant; and 21 (c) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, a creditor of and transferee from 22 the landlord can acquire no greater interest in a security deposit than the 23 interest of the landlord.

24 (2) The following shall apply to a tenant's interest in a security deposit:

25 (a) Notwithstanding law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, the tenant's 26 interest has priority over any right of setoff the bank in which the account is 27 maintained may have for obligations owed to the bank other than charges

- 1 normally associated with the bank's maintenance of the account;
 2 (b) The tenant's interest is not adversely affected if the deposit is commingled 3 with the deposits of other tenants; and 4 (c) The effect of commingling other than that allowed in paragraph (b) of this 5 subsection is determined by law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act.

- 6 (3) Subsection (1)(c) of this section does not abrogate generally applicable rules of 7 law enabling a transferee of funds to take the funds free of competing claims.

8 ➔SECTION 58. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO
 9 READ AS FOLLOWS:

- 10 (1) With respect to funds constituting a security deposit, a landlord:

- 11 (a) Shall maintain the ability to identify the funds:

- 12 1. By holding the funds in a bank account that is used exclusively for 13 security deposits, that is maintained with a bank doing business in this 14 state, and the title of which indicates that it contains security deposits; 15 and 16 2. By maintaining records that indicate at all times the amount of the 17 funds attributable to each tenant whose funds are being held in the 18 account; and

- 19 (b) May commingle the funds received from other tenants as security deposits 20 in the same bank account but shall not commingle other funds, including 21 the landlord's personal or business funds, in the account.

- 22 (2) If a landlord fails to comply with subsection (1) of this section, the tenant may 23 recover actual damages or damages equal to one (1) times the periodic rent, 24 whichever is greater.

- 25 (3) A bank in which a landlord deposits funds constituting a security deposit has no 26 duty to ensure that the landlord properly applies the funds.

- 27 (4) Unless a lease provides otherwise, the landlord is not required to deposit a

1 security deposit into an interest-bearing account or to pay the tenant interest on 2 the deposit.

3 ➔SECTION 59. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO
4 READ AS FOLLOWS:

5 (1) After termination of a lease, the tenant is entitled to the amount by which the 6 security deposit and any unearned rent exceeds the amount the landlord is owed 7 under the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act.

8 (2) Not later than thirty (30) days after a lease terminates and the tenant vacates the 9 premises, the landlord shall determine the amount the landlord believes the 10 tenant is entitled to under subsection (1) of this section and:

11 (a) Tender that amount to the tenant or, if the tenant has died, the tenant 12 representative;

13 (b) Send that amount by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to an address 14 provided by the tenant or, if the tenant has died, the tenant representative 15 or, in the absence of that address, to the relevant address specified in 16 Section 8 of this Act; or

17 (c) Cause a funds transfer in that amount to be made, with the cost of transfer 18 paid, to a bank account designated by the tenant or, if the tenant has died, 19 the tenant's representative.

20 (3) If the amount under subsection (2) of this section is less than the sum of the 21 tenant's security deposit and any unearned rent, the landlord shall provide the 22 tenant or tenant representative, within the period specified under subsection (2) 23 of this section, a record specifying each item of property damage or other 24 unfulfilled obligation of the tenant to which the security deposit or unearned rent 25 was applied and the amount applied to each item.

26 (4) If the amount to which the tenant is entitled under subsection (1) of this section is 27 greater than the amount paid to the tenant or tenant representative, the tenant or 1 tenant representative may recover the difference.

2 (5) If a landlord fails to comply with subsection (2) or (3) of this section, the court 3 may award the tenant or tenant's representative, in addition to any amount 4 recoverable under subsection (4) of this section, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 5 or two (2) times the amount recoverable under subsection (4) of this section, 6 whichever is greater, unless the landlord's only noncompliance was the failure to 7 comply with subsection (2(b)) of this section as a result of the inadvertent failure 8 to pay the cost of postage or transmission or to use the proper address.

9 (6) If a security deposit and unearned rent held by a landlord are insufficient to 10 satisfy the tenant's obligations under the lease and Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, 11 the landlord may recover from the tenant the amount necessary to satisfy those 12 obligations.

16 (a) If the lease continues, not later than thirty (30) days after the termination of 17 the landlord's interest, shall transfer to the person succeeding the 18 landlord's interest in the premises any security deposit being held by the 19 landlord and notify the tenant in a record of the successor's name and 20 address, the amount transferred, and any claim previously made against the 21 security deposit; or

22 (b) If the lease terminates as a result of the termination of the landlord's 23 interest, shall comply with Section 59 of this Act.

24 (2) If a landlord dies before the termination of the lease, the personal representative 25 of the landlord's estate becomes the landlord until the premises are distributed to 26 the successor. If the premises are distributed to the successor before the 27 termination of the lease, the security deposit held by the representative must be

1 transferred to the successor and the representative shall notify the tenant in a 2 record of the successor's name and address, the amount transferred to the 3 successor, and any claim previously made against the security deposit. If the 4 premises are not distributed to the successor before the termination of the lease, 5 the representative shall comply with Section 59 of this Act.

6 (3) If a landlord or personal representative of the landlord's estate complies with 7 subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the landlord or the estate has no further 8 liability with respect to the security deposit.

9 (4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a successor to a 10 landlord's interest in the premises has all rights and obligations of the landlord 11 under Sections 1 to 61 of this Act with respect to any security deposit held by the 12 predecessor landlord which has not been returned to the tenant, whether or not 13 the security deposit was transferred or distributed to the successor.

14 (5) If a landlord's interest is terminated by foreclosure, the successor's liability 15 under subsection (4) of this section is limited to the security deposit received by 16 the successor.

17 ➔Section 61. KRS 383.715 is amended to read as follows:
