

1 AN ACT relating to child support after driving under the influence.

2 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

3 ➔SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 532 IS CREATED TO 4 READ AS FOLLOWS:

5 (1) As used in this section:

6 (a) "Disabled":

- 7 1. Means a legal disability as is measured by functional inabilities; and 8 2. Includes inabilities caused by psychological, psychiatric, or stress- 9 related trauma, and refers to any person seventeen (17) years of age or 10 older who is unable to make informed decisions with respect to his or 11 her personal affairs to the extent that he or she lacks the capacity to 12 provide for his or her physical health and safety or the physical health 13 and safety of a minor child, including but not limited to health care, 14 food, shelter, clothing, or personal hygiene; and

15 (b) "Totally and permanently disabled":

- 16 1. Means the inability to do any substantial gainful activity by reason of 17 any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can 18 be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to 19 last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months; and 20 2. Includes a finding of permanent total disability by the Social Security
21 Administration that a person is disabled and qualifies for benefits or a 22 finding by an administrative law judge under KRS Chapter 342.

23 (2) (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, if a defendant is convicted of a 24 violation of KRS 189A.010 and the violation caused the death of a parent or 25 guardian of a minor child or dependent or resulted in a finding by the court 26 that a parent or guardian of a minor child or dependent is disabled or 27 totally and permanently disabled, then the sentencing court may order the

1 defendant to pay restitution in the form of financial support for the child or 2 dependent to each child or dependent of the victim until the child or 3 dependent reaches:

- 4 1. Eighteen (18) years of age; or 5 2. Nineteen (19) years of age if the child or dependent is still enrolled in 6 high school.

7 (b) In determining an amount that is reasonable and necessary for the 8 financial support of the victim's child or dependent, the court shall consider 9 all relevant factors, including the:

- 10 1. Financial needs and resources of the child or dependent; 11 2. Financial resources and needs of the surviving parent or guardian of 12 the child or dependent;
13 3. Standard of living to which the child or dependent is accustomed; 14 4. Physical and emotional condition of the child or dependent and the 15 child's or dependent's educational needs;
16 5. Child's or dependent's physical and legal custody arrangements; and 17 6. Reasonable child care expenses of the surviving parent or guardian.

18 (3) The court shall order that payments made to financially support the child or 19 dependent be made to the clerk of court as trustee for remittance to the child or 20 dependent's surviving parent or guardian. The clerk shall remit the payments to 21 the surviving parent or guardian within three (3) working days of receipt by the 22 clerk. The clerk shall deposit all payments no later than the next working day 23 after receipt.

24 (4) If a defendant who is ordered to pay restitution in the form of financial support 25 for the child or dependent under this section is incarcerated and unable to pay 26 the required restitution, the defendant shall have up to one (1) year after the 27 release from incarceration to begin payment, including entering into a payment

1        plan to address any arrearage.

2        (5) If a defendant's payments to financially support the child or dependent are set to 3        terminate but the defendant's obligation is not paid in full, the payments to 4        financially support the child or dependent shall continue until the entire 5        arrearage is paid.

6        (6) (a) If the surviving parent or guardian of the child or dependent brings a civil 7        action against the defendant before the sentencing court orders restitution 8        to financially support the child or dependent and the surviving parent or 9        guardian obtains a judgment and full satisfaction of damages in the civil 10       suit, restitution shall not be ordered under this section.

11       (b) If the court orders the defendant to pay restitution to financially support the 12       child or dependent under this section and the surviving parent or guardian 13       subsequently brings a civil action and obtains a judgment, the restitution 14       order shall be offset by the amount of the judgment awarded and paid by the 15       defendant or the defendant's insurance for lost wages or permanent 16       impairment of the power to work and earn money in the civil action.

17       ➔Section 2. This Act may be cited as Melanie's Law.
