11 article of this chapter~~[the Uniform Commercial Code]~~.

12 (2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable 13 relation to this state and also to another state or nation, the parties may agree that 14 the law of either this state or such other state or nation shall govern their rights and 15 duties.

16 (3) In the absence of an agreement effective under subsection (2) of this section, the 17 rights and obligations of the parties are determined by the law that would be

7 record.

8 →SECTION 5. KRS 355.2-102 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ
9 AS FOLLOWS:

10 (1) Unless the context otherwise requires, and except as provided in subsection (3) of 11 this section, this article applies to transactions in goods and, in the case of a 12 hybrid transaction, it applies to the extent provided in subsection (2) of this 13 section.

14 (2) In a hybrid transaction:

15 (a) If the sale-of-goods aspects do not predominate, only the provisions of this 16 article which relate primarily to the sale-of-goods aspects of the transaction
17 apply, and the provisions that relate primarily to the transaction as a whole 18 do not apply; and

19 (b) If the sale-of-goods aspects predominate, this article applies to the 20 transaction but does not preclude application in appropriate circumstances 21 of other law to aspects of the transaction which do not relate to the sale of 22 goods.

23 (3) This article does not:

24 (a) Apply to a transaction that, even though in the form of an unconditional 25 contract to sell or present sale, operates only to create a security interest; or

26 (b) Impair or repeal any statute regulating sales to consumers, farmers, or 27 other specified classes of buyers.

1 ➔Section 6. KRS 355.2-106 is amended to read as follows:

- 2 (1) In this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
- 3 (a) "Contract" and "agreement" are limited to those relating to the present or 4 future sale of goods;~~[-]~~
- 5 (b) "Contract for sale" includes both a present sale of goods and a contract to sell
6 goods at a future time;~~[-]~~
- 7 (c) A "sale" consists in the passing of title from the seller to the buyer for a price
8 (KRS 355.2-401); ~~and~~~~[-]~~
- 9 (d) A "present sale" means a sale which is accomplished by the making of the 10 contract.
- 11 (2) Goods or conduct, including any part of a performance, are "conforming" or 12 conform to the contract when they are in accordance with the obligations under the 13 contract.
- 14 (3) (a) "Termination" occurs when either party, pursuant to a power created by 15 agreement or law, puts an end to the contract otherwise than for its breach.
- 16 (b) On "termination," all obligations which are still executory on both sides are 17 discharged, but any right based on prior breach or performance survives.
- 18 (4) "Cancellation" occurs when either party puts an end to the contract for breach by 19 the other and its effect is the same as that of "termination," except that the canceling
20 party also retains any remedy for breach of the whole contract or any unperformed 21 balance.
- 22 (5) "Hybrid transaction" means a single transaction involving a sale of goods and:
- 23 (a) The provision of services;
- 24 (b) A lease of other goods; or
- 25 (c) A sale, lease, or license of property other than goods.

26 ➔Section 7. KRS 355.2-201 is amended to read as follows:

- 27 (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a contract for the sale of goods for the

1 price of five hundred dollars ($500) or more is not enforceable by way of action or 2 defense unless there is a record~~[some writing]~~ sufficient to indicate that a contract
 3 for sale has been made between the parties and signed by the party against whom 4 enforcement is sought or by the party's~~[his]~~ authorized agent or broker. A
 5 record~~[writing]~~ is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term
 6 agreed upon, but the contract is not enforceable under this subsection~~[paragraph]~~ 7 beyond the quantity of goods shown in the record~~[such writing]~~.

8 (2) Between merchants, if within a reasonable time a record~~[writing]~~ in confirmation of 9 the contract and sufficient against the sender is received and the party receiving it 10 has reason to know its contents, it satisfies the requirements of subsection (1) of 11 this section against the~~[such]~~ party unless~~[written]~~ notice in a record of objection 12 to its contents is given within ten (10) days after it is received.

13 (3) A contract which does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) of this section
 14 but which is valid in other respects is enforceable:

15 (a) If the goods are to be specially manufactured for the buyer and are not 16 suitable for sale to others in the ordinary course of the seller's business and the 17 seller, before notice of repudiation is received and under circumstances which 18 reasonably indicate that the goods are for the buyer, has made either a 19 substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for their 20 procurement;~~[or]~~

21 (b) If the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's~~[his]~~ 22 pleading or~~[,]~~ testimony, or otherwise, in court that a contract for sale was 23 made, but the contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the 24 quantity of goods admitted; or

25 (c) With respect to goods for which payment has been made and accepted or 26 which have been received and accepted (KRS 355.2-606).

27 ➔Section 8. KRS 355.2-202 is amended to read as follows:

1 Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memoranda of the parties agree or which
2 are otherwise set forth in a record~~[writing]~~ intended by the parties as a final expression of
3 their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be
4 contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement
5 but may be explained or supplemented:

6 (1) By course of performance, course of dealing, or usage of trade (KRS 355.1-303);
7 and

8 (2) By evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the 9 record~~[writing]~~ to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of 10 the terms of the agreement.

11 ➔Section 9. KRS 355.2-203 is amended to read as follows:

12 The affixing of a seal to a record~~[writing]~~ evidencing a contract for sale or an offer to 13 buy or sell goods does not constitute the record~~[writing]~~ a sealed instrument and the law
14 with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to such a contract or offer.

15 ➔Section 10. KRS 355.2-205 is amended to read as follows:

16 An offer by a merchant to buy or sell goods in a signed record~~[writing]~~ which by its 17 terms gives assurance that it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, 18 during the time stated or if no time is stated, for a reasonable time, but in no event may 19 such period of irrevocability exceed three (3) months~~[-]~~ and~~[but]~~ any such term of 20 assurance on a form supplied by the offeree must be separately signed by the offeror.

21 ➔Section 11. KRS 355.2-209 is amended to read as follows:

22 (1) An agreement modifying a contract within this article needs no consideration to be 23 binding.

24 (2) A signed agreement that~~[which]~~ excludes modification or rescission except by a 25 signed writing or other signed record cannot be otherwise modified or rescinded, 26 but, except as between merchants, such a requirement on a form supplied by the 27 merchant must be separately signed by the other party.

1 (3) The requirements of the statute of frauds section of this article (KRS 355.2-201)
2 must be satisfied if the contract as modified is within its provisions.

3 (4) Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements
4 of subsection (2) or (3) of this section, it can operate as a waiver.

5 (5) A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of the contract may 6 retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that strict 7 performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would be 8 unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver.

9 ➔Section 12. KRS 355.2A-102 is amended to read as follows:

10 (1) This article applies to any transaction, regardless of form, that creates a lease and,
11 in the case of a hybrid lease, it applies to the extent provided in subsection (2) of 12 this section.

13 (2) In a hybrid lease:

14 (a) If the lease-of-goods aspects do not predominate:

15 1. Only the provisions of this article which relate primarily to the lease- 16 of-goods aspects of the transaction apply, and the provisions that 17 relate primarily to the transaction as a whole do not apply;

18 2. KRS 355.2A-209 applies if the lease is a finance lease; and

19 3. KRS 355.2A-407 applies to the promises of the lessee in a finance 20 lease to the extent the promises are consideration for the right to 21 possession and use of the leased goods; and

22 (b) If the lease-of-goods aspects predominate, this article applies to the 23 transaction, but does not preclude application in appropriate circumstances
24 of other law to aspects of the lease which do not relate to the lease of goods.

25 ➔Section 13. KRS 355.2A-103 is amended to read as follows:

26 (1) In this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

27 (a) 1. "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who, in good

1 faith and without knowledge that the sale to the person~~[him]~~ is in 2 violation of the ownership rights or security interest or leasehold interest
3 of a third party in the goods, buys in ordinary course from a person in 4 the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a 5 pawnbroker.

6 2. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on 7 secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents
8 of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a 9 transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a

11 (b) "Cancellation" occurs when either party puts an end to the lease contract for 12 default by the other party;

13 (c) 1. "Commercial unit" means such a unit of goods as by commercial usage

16 2. A commercial unit may be a single article, as a machine, or a set of 17 articles, as a suite of furniture or a line of machinery, or a quantity, as a

- 15 such as the manufacturer of the goods, provided to the lessor by
- 16 the person supplying the goods in connection with or as part of the
- 17 contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to
- 18 possession and use of the goods; or
- 19 d. If the lease is not a consumer lease, the lessor, before the lessee
- 20 signs the lease contract, informs the lessee in writing: ~~[(a)]~~
- 21 i. Of the identity of the person supplying the goods to the
- 22 lessor, unless the lessee has selected that person and directed
- 23 the lessor to acquire the goods or the right to possession and
- 24 use of the goods from that person; ~~[(b)]~~
- 25 ii. That the lessee is entitled under this article to the promises

10 does not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel
11 paper, general intangibles, or minerals or the like, including oil and gas, 12 before extraction.

13 2. The term also includes the unborn young of animals;

14 (i) "Hybrid lease" means a single transaction involving a lease of goods and:

22 ~~(k)~~~~(j)~~ 1. "Lease" means a transfer of the right to possession and use of 23 goods for a term in return for consideration, but a sale, including a sale

20 entered into; otherwise, the discount is determined by a commercially 21 reasonable rate that takes into account the facts and circumstances of 22 each case at the time the transaction was entered into;

23 ~~(w)~~~~(v)~~ "Purchase" includes taking by sale, lease, mortgage, security interest,

7 ➔Section 14. KRS 355.2A-107 is amended to read as follows:

8 Any claim or right arising out of an alleged default or breach of warranty may be 9 discharged in whole or in part without consideration by a ~~written~~ waiver or renunciation 10 in a signed record~~and~~ delivered by the aggrieved party.

11 ➔Section 15. KRS 355.2A-201 is amended to read as follows:

12 (1) A lease contract is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless:

- 13 (a) The total payments to be made under the lease contract, excluding payments 14 for options to renew or buy, are less than five hundred dollars ($500); or 15 (b) There is a record~~writing~~, signed by the party against whom enforcement is 16 sought or by that party's authorized agent, sufficient to indicate that a lease
17 contract has been made between the parties and to describe the goods leased 18 and the lease term.

19 (2) Any description of leased goods or of the lease term is sufficient and satisfies
20 subsection (1)(b) of this section, whether or not it is specific, if it reasonably 21 identifies what is described.

22 (3) A record~~writing~~ is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term 23 agreed upon, but the lease contract is not enforceable under subsection (1)(b) of this 24 section beyond the lease term and the quantity of goods shown in the 25 record~~writing~~.

26 (4) A lease contract that does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) of this 27 section, but which is valid in other respects, is enforceable:

- 1 (a) If the goods are to be specially manufactured or obtained for the lessee and 2 are not suitable for lease or sale to others in the ordinary course of the lessor's 3 business, and the lessor, before notice of repudiation is received and under 4 circumstances that reasonably indicate that the goods are for the lessee, has 5 made either a substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for 6 their procurement;
- 7 (b) If the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's 8 pleading or testimony, or otherwise, in court that a lease contract was made, 9 but the lease contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the 10 quantity of goods admitted; or
- 11 (c) With respect to goods that have been received and accepted by the lessee.
- 12 (5) The lease term under a lease contract referred to in subsection (4) of this section is:
- 13 (a) If there is a record writing signed by the party against whom enforcement is 14 sought or by that party's authorized agent specifying the lease term, the term 15 so specified;
- 16 (b) If the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's 17 pleading or testimony, or otherwise, in court a lease term, the term so 18 admitted; or
- 19 (c) A reasonable lease term.

20 ➔Section 16. KRS 355.2A-202 is amended to read as follows:

21 Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memoranda of the parties agree or which 22 are otherwise set forth in a record writing intended by the parties as a final expression of 23 their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be
24 contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement
25 but may be explained or supplemented:

- 26 (1) By course of dealing or usage of trade or by course of performance; and 27 (2) By evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the

1 ~~record~~^[writing] to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of
2 the terms of the agreement.

3 ➔Section 17. KRS 355.2A-203 is amended to read as follows:

4 The affixing of a seal to a ~~record~~^[writing] evidencing a lease contract or an offer to enter
5 into a lease contract does not render the ~~record~~^[writing] a sealed instrument and the law
6 with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to the lease contract or offer.

7 ➔Section 18. KRS 355.2A-205 is amended to read as follows:

8 An offer by a merchant to lease goods to or from another person in a signed 9 ~~record~~^[writing] that by its terms gives assurance it will be held open is not revocable, for 10 lack of consideration, during the time stated or~~[-]~~ if no time is stated, for a reasonable 11 time, but in no event may the period of irrevocability exceed three (3) months ~~and~~^[-] any 12 such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeree must be separately signed by the 13 offeror.

14 ➔Section 19. KRS 355.2A-208 is amended to read as follows:

- 15 (1) An agreement modifying a lease contract needs no consideration to be binding.
- 16 (2) A signed lease agreement that excludes modification or rescission except by a 17 signed ~~record cannot~~^[writing may not] be otherwise modified or rescinded, but,
18 except as between merchants, such a requirement on a form supplied by a merchant 19 must be separately signed by the other party.
- 20 (3) Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements
21 of subsection (2) of this section, it may operate as a waiver.
- 22 (4) A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of a lease contract 23 may retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that 24 strict performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would 25 be unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver.

26 ➔Section 20. KRS 355.3-104 is amended to read as follows:

- 27 (1) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, "negotiable

1 instrument" means an unconditional promise or order to pay a fixed amount of 2 money, with or without interest or other charges described in the promise or order,
3 if it:

4 (a) Is payable to bearer or to order at the time it is issued or first comes into 5 possession of a holder;

6 (b) Is payable on demand or at a definite time; and

7 (c) Does not state any other undertaking or instruction by the person promising or 8 ordering payment to do any act in addition to the payment of money, but the 9 promise or order may contain:

10 1. An undertaking or power to give, maintain, or protect collateral to 11 secure payment;

12 2. An authorization or power to the holder to confess judgment or realize 13 on or dispose of collateral;~~or~~

14 3. A waiver of the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or 15 protection of an obligor;

16 4. A term that specifies the law that governs the promise or order; or

17 5. An undertaking to resolve in a specified forum a dispute concerning 18 the promise or order.

19 (2) "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument.

20 (3) An order that meets all of the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, except 21 paragraph (a) of that subsection, and otherwise falls within the definition of "check"
22 in subsection (6) of this section is a negotiable instrument and a check.

23 (4) A promise or order other than a check is not an instrument if, at the time it is issued 24 or first comes into possession of a holder, it contains a conspicuous statement, 25 however expressed, to the effect that the promise or order is not negotiable or is not 26 an instrument governed by this article.

27 (5) (a) An instrument is a "note" if it is a promise and is a "draft" if it is an order.

1 (b) If an instrument falls within the definition of both "note" and "draft," a person
2 entitled to enforce the instrument may treat it as either.

3 (6) (a) "Check" means:

4 ~~1.(a)~~ A draft, other than a documentary draft, payable on demand and 5 drawn on a bank; or

6 ~~2.(b)~~ A cashier's check or teller's check.

7 (b) An instrument may be a check even though it is described on its face by 8 another term, such as "money order."

9 (7) "Cashier's check" means a draft with respect to which the drawer and drawee are 10 the same bank or branches of the same bank.

11 (8) "Teller's check" means a draft drawn by a bank:

12 (a) On another bank; or

13 (b) Payable at or through a bank.

20 specimen signature appears on the instrument.

21 (10) (a) "Certificate of deposit" means an instrument containing an acknowledgment
22 by a bank that a sum of money has been received by the bank and a promise 23 by the bank to repay the sum of money.

1 holder or nonholder, for the purpose of giving rights on the instrument to any 2 person; or

3 (b) If agreed by the payee, the first transmission by the drawer to the payee of 4 an image of an item and information derived from the item that enables the 5 depository bank to collect the item by transferring or presenting under 6 federal law an electronic check.

7 (2) (a) An unissued instrument, or an unissued incomplete instrument that is 8 completed, is binding on the maker or drawer, but nonissuance is a defense.

9 (b) An instrument that is conditionally issued or is issued for a special purpose is 10 binding on the maker or drawer, but failure of the condition or special purpose 11 to be fulfilled is a defense.

12 (3) "Issuer" applies to issued and unissued instruments and means a maker or drawer of 13 an instrument.

14 ➔Section 22. KRS 355.3-401 is amended to read as follows:

15 ~~[(1)]~~ A person is not liable on an instrument unless:

16 ~~(1)(a)~~ The person signed the instrument; or 19 402.

20 ~~[(2)]~~ A signature may be made:

21 ~~(a)~~ Manually or by means of a device or machine; and

22 ~~(b)~~ By the use of any name, including a trade or assumed name, or by a word,

15 amount for which the item is drawn.
- 16 (2) (a) A drawee making payment may recover from any warrantor damages for 17 breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount 18 the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the 19 payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses, 20 including reasonable attorney's fees, and loss of interest resulting from the 21 breach.
- 22 (b) The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not
23 affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making 24 payment.
- 25 (c) If the drawee accepts the draft, breach of warranty is a defense to the 26 obligation of the acceptor.
- 27 (d) If the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is

1 entitled to recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts
2 stated in this subsection.

3 (3) If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection (1) of this 4 section based on an unauthorized indorsement of the draft or an alteration of the 5 draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the indorsement is effective under 6 KRS 355.3-404 or 355.3-405 or the drawer is precluded under KRS 355.3-406 or 7 355.4-406 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized indorsement or

19 entitled to enforce the instrument or authorized to obtain payment on 20 behalf of a person entitled to enforce the instrument.

21 2. The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach 22 of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses,
23 including reasonable attorney's fees, and loss of interest resulting from 24 the breach.

25 (5) (a) The warranties stated in subsections (1) and (4) of this section cannot be 26 disclaimed with respect to checks.

27 (b) Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor

1 within thirty (30) days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and
 2 the identity of the warrantor, the liability of the warrantor under subsection (2)
 3 or (4) of this section is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the 4 delay in giving notice of the claim.

 19 and, subsequently, the information and image are transmitted for payment.

20 (2) Cancellation or striking out of an indorsement pursuant to subsection (1) of this 21 section does not affect the status and rights of a party derived from the indorsement.

11 3. The warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the purported 12 drawer of the draft is unauthorized; and 13 4. With respect to any remotely created item, that the person on whose 14 account the item is drawn authorized the issuance of the item in the 15 amount for which the item is drawn.

16 (2) (a) A drawee making payment may recover from a warrantor damages for breach 17 of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the 18 drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the 19 payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses, 20 including reasonable attorney's fees, and loss of interest resulting from the 21 breach.

22 (b) The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not
23 affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making

12 indorser; or

13 ~~2.[(b)]~~ Any other item is presented for payment to a party obliged to pay 14 the item,

8 another bank to pay, a fixed or determinable amount of money to a 9 beneficiary if:

- 10 1. The instruction does not state a condition to payment to the beneficiary 11 other than time of payment;
- 12 2. The receiving bank is to be reimbursed by debiting an account of, or 13 otherwise receiving payment from, the sender; and
- 14 3. The instruction is transmitted by the sender directly to the receiving 15 bank or to an agent, funds-transfer system, or communication system for 16 transmittal to the receiving bank.

17 (b) "Beneficiary" means the person to be paid by the beneficiary's bank.

18 (c) "Beneficiary's bank" means the bank identified in a payment order in which 19 an account of the beneficiary is to be credited pursuant to the order or which 20 otherwise is to make payment to the beneficiary if the order does not provide 21 for payment to an account.

22 (d) "Receiving bank" means the bank to which the sender's instruction is 23 addressed.

24 (e) "Sender" means the person giving the instruction to the receiving bank.

25 (2) If an instruction complying with subsection (1)(a) of this section is to make more
26 than one (1) payment to a beneficiary, the instruction is a separate payment order 27 with respect to each payment.

1 (3) A payment order is issued when it is sent to the receiving bank.

2 ➔Section 27. KRS 355.4A-201 is amended to read as follows:

3 (1) "Security procedure" means a procedure established by agreement of a customer 4 and a receiving bank for the purpose of:

5 (a)~~(1)~~ Verifying that a payment order or communication amending or 6 canceling a payment order is that of the customer; or

7 (b)~~(2)~~ Detecting error in the transmission or the content of the payment order 8 or communication.

9 (2) A security procedure may:

10 (a) Impose an obligation on the receiving bank or the customer; and

11 (b) Require the use of algorithms or other codes, identifying words,~~or~~ numbers, 12 symbols, sounds, biometrics, encryption, callback procedures, or similar 13 security devices.

14 (3) Comparison of a signature on a payment order or communication with an 15 authorized specimen signature of the customer or requiring a payment order to be 16 sent from a known email address, IP address, or phone number is not by itself a 17 security procedure.

18 ➔Section 28. KRS 355.4A-202 is amended to read as follows:

19 (1) A payment order received by the receiving bank is the authorized order of the 20 person identified as sender if that person authorized the order or is otherwise bound 21 by it under the law of agency.

22 (2) (a) If a bank and its customer have agreed that the authenticity of payment orders
23 issued to the bank in the name of the customer as sender will be verified
24 pursuant to a security procedure, a payment order received by the receiving 25 bank is effective as the order of the customer, whether or not authorized, if:

26 1.~~(a)~~ The security procedure is a commercially reasonable method of 27 providing security against unauthorized payment orders; and

1 ~~2.[(b)]~~ The bank proves that it accepted the payment order in good faith
 2 and in compliance with the bank's obligations under the security
 3 procedure and any~~[-written]~~ agreement or instruction of the customer,
 4 evidenced by a record, restricting acceptance of payment orders issued
 5 in the name the customer.

6 (b) The bank is not required to follow an instruction that violates ~~an~~~~[-a-written]~~ 7 agreement with the customer, evidenced by a record, or notice of which is not
 8 received at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable
 9 opportunity to act on it before the payment order is accepted.

10 (3) (a) Commercial reasonableness of a security procedure is a question of law to be 11 determined by considering the wishes of the customer expressed to the bank, 12 the circumstances of the customer known to the bank, including the size, type,
 13 and frequency of payment orders normally issued by the customer to the bank,
 14 alternative security procedures offered to the customer, and security
 15 procedures in general use by customers and receiving banks similarly situated.

16 (b) A security procedure is deemed to be commercially reasonable if:

17 ~~1.[(a)]~~ The security procedure was chosen by the customer after the bank 18 offered, and the customer refused, a security procedure that was 19 commercially reasonable for that customer; and

20 ~~2.[(b)]~~ The customer expressly agreed in ~~a record~~~~[-writing]~~ to be bound by 21 any payment order, whether or not authorized, issued in its name and 22 accepted by the bank in compliance with the bank's obligations under 23 the security procedure chosen by the customer.

24 (4) The term "sender" in this article includes the customer in whose name a payment 25 order is issued if the order is:

26 (a) The authorized order of the customer under subsection (1) of this section;~~[-]~~ 27 or~~[-it is -]~~

1 (b) Effective as the order of the customer under subsection (2) of this section.

2 (5) This section applies to amendments and cancellations of payment orders to the 3 same extent it applies to payment orders.

4 (6) Except as provided in this section and in KRS 355.4A-203(1)(a), rights and 5 obligations arising under this section or KRS 355.4A-203 may not be varied by 6 agreement.

7 ➔Section 29. KRS 355.4A-203 is amended to read as follows:

8 (1) If an accepted payment order is not, under KRS 355.4A-202(1), an authorized order
9 of a customer identified as sender, but is effective as an order of the customer
10 pursuant to KRS 355.4A-202(2), the following rules apply:

11 (a) By express~~[-written]~~ agreement, evidenced by a record, the receiving bank 12 may limit the extent to which it is entitled to enforce or retain payment of the 13 payment order; and~~[-]~~

14 (b) The receiving bank is not entitled to enforce or retain payment of the payment 15 order if the customer proves that the order was not caused, directly or 16 indirectly, by a person:

17 1. Entrusted at any time with duties to act for the customer with respect to 18 payment orders or the security procedure; or

19 2. Who obtained access to transmitting facilities of the customer or who 20 obtained, from a source controlled by the customer and without 21 authority of the receiving bank, information facilitating breach of the 22 security procedure, regardless of how the information was obtained or 23 whether the customer was at fault. Information includes any access 24 device, computer software, or the like.

25 ~~[- Information includes any access device, computer software, or the like. -]~~

26 (2) This section applies to amendments of payment orders to the same extent it applies 27 to payment orders.

1 ➔ Section 30. KRS 355.4A-207 is amended to read as follows:

2 (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, if, in a payment order received by the 3 beneficiary's bank, the name, bank account number, or other identification of the 4 beneficiary refers to a nonexistent or unidentifiable person or account, no person
5 has rights as a beneficiary of the order and acceptance of the order cannot occur.

6 (2) If a payment order received by the beneficiary's bank identifies the beneficiary both 7 by name and by an identifying or bank account number and the name and number 8 identify different persons, the following rules apply:

9 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section:~~[-]~~

10 1. If the beneficiary's bank does not know that the name and number refer 11 to different persons, it may rely on the number as the proper
12 identification of the beneficiary of the order; and~~[-]~~

13 2. The beneficiary's bank need not determine whether the name and 14 number refer to the same person; and~~[-]~~

15 (b) 1. If the beneficiary's bank pays the person identified by name or knows 16 that the name and number identify different persons, no person has 17 rights as beneficiary except the person paid by the beneficiary's bank if 18 that person was entitled to receive payment from the originator of the 19 funds transfer.

20 2. If no person has rights as beneficiary, acceptance of the order cannot 21 occur.

22 (3) ~~[(a)]~~ If a payment order described in subsection (2) of this section is accepted;~~[-]~~ 23 ~~[(b)]~~ the originator's payment order described the beneficiary inconsistently by 24 name and number;~~[-]~~ and {
25 ~~[(c)]~~ the beneficiary's bank pays the person identified by number as permitted by 26 subsection (2)(a) of this section, the following rules apply:

27 ~~[(a)]~~ If the originator is a bank, the originator is obliged to pay its order;~~[-]~~

1 ~~and~~

2 ~~(b)~~ 1. If the originator is not a bank and proves that the person identified 3 by number was not entitled to receive payment from the originator, the 4 originator is not obliged to pay its order unless the originator's bank
5 proves that the originator, before acceptance of the originator's order,
6 had notice that payment of a payment order issued by the originator
7 might be made by the beneficiary's bank on the basis of an identifying or 8 bank account number even if it identifies a person different from the 9 named beneficiary.

10 2. Proof of notice may be made by any admissible evidence.

11 3. The originator's bank satisfies the burden of proof if it proves that the 12 originator, before the payment order was accepted, signed a 13 ~~record~~ writing stating the information to which the notice relates.

14 (4) In a case governed by subsection (2)(a) of this section, if the beneficiary's bank 15 rightfully pays the person identified by number and that person was not entitled to 16 receive payment from the originator, the amount paid may be recovered from that 17 person to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution as 18 follows:

19 (a) If the originator is obliged to pay its payment order as stated in subsection (3) 20 of this section, the originator has the right to recover; ~~and~~

21 (b) If the originator is not a bank and is not obliged to pay its payment order, the 22 originator's bank has the right to recover.

23 ➔Section 31. KRS 355.4A-208 is amended to read as follows:

24 (1) (a) This subsection applies to a payment order identifying an intermediary bank
25 or the beneficiary's bank only by an identifying number.

26 ~~(b)~~ ~~(a)~~ The receiving bank may rely on the number as the proper identification 27 of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank and need not determine whether the

1 number identifies a bank.

2 ~~(c)(b)~~ The sender is obliged to compensate the receiving bank for any loss and
3 expenses incurred by the receiving bank as a result of its reliance on the 4 number in executing or attempting to execute the order.

5 (2) (a) This subsection applies to a payment order identifying an intermediary bank
6 or the beneficiary's bank both by name and an identifying number if the name
7 and number identify different persons.

8 ~~(b)(a)~~ 1. If the sender is a bank, the receiving bank may rely on the number 9 as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank if 10 the receiving bank, when it executes the sender's order, does not know 11 that the name and number identify different persons.

12 2. The receiving bank need not determine whether the name and number 13 refer to the same person or whether the number refers to a bank.

14 3. The sender is obliged to compensate the receiving bank for any loss and 15 expenses incurred by the receiving bank as a result of its reliance on the 16 number in executing or attempting to execute the order.

17 ~~(c)(b)~~ 1. If the sender is not a bank and the receiving bank proves that the 18 sender, before the payment order was accepted, had notice that the 19 receiving bank might rely on the number as the proper identification of 20 the intermediary or beneficiary's bank even if it identifies a person 21 different from the bank identified by name, the rights and obligations of 22 the sender and the receiving bank are governed by paragraph (b) of this
23 subsection~~subsection (1)(b)~~, as though the sender were a bank.

24 2. Proof of notice may be made by any admissible evidence.

25 3. The receiving bank satisfies the burden of proof if it proves that the 26 sender, before the payment order was accepted, signed a record~~writing~~ 27 stating the information to which the notice relates.

1 ~~(d)~~~~(e)~~ 1. Regardless of whether the sender is a bank, the receiving bank
 2 may rely on the name as the proper identification of the intermediary or 3 beneficiary's bank if the receiving bank, at the time it executes the 4 sender's order, does not know that the name and number identify 5 different persons.

6 2. The receiving bank need not determine whether the name and number
 7 refer to the same person.

8 ~~(e)~~~~(d)~~ If the receiving bank knows that the name and number identify different 9 persons, reliance on either the name or the number in executing the sender's
 10 payment order is a breach of the obligation stated in KRS 355.4A-302(1)(a).

11 ➔Section 32. KRS 355.4A-210 is amended to read as follows:

12 (1) (a) A payment order is rejected by the receiving bank by a notice of rejection
 13 transmitted to the sender orally~~[-electronically,]~~ or in a record~~[writing].~~

14 (b) A notice of rejection need not use any particular words and is sufficient if it 15 indicates that the receiving bank is rejecting the order or will not execute or 16 pay the order.

17 (c) Rejection is effective when the notice is given if transmission is by a means 18 that is reasonable in the circumstances.

19 (d) If notice of rejection is given by a means that is not reasonable, rejection is 20 effective when the notice is received.

21 (e) If an agreement of the sender and receiving bank establishes the means to be 22 used to reject a payment order:

23 ~~1.~~~~(a)~~ Any means complying with the agreement is reasonable; and

24 ~~2.~~~~(b)~~ Any means not complying is not reasonable unless no significant 25 delay in receipt of the notice resulted from the use of the noncomplying 26 means.

27 (2) (a) This subsection applies if a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank

1 fails to execute a payment order despite the existence on the execution date of 2 a withdrawable credit balance in an authorized account of the sender
3 sufficient to cover the order.

4 (b) If the sender does not receive notice of rejection of the order on the execution
5 date and the authorized account of the sender does not bear interest, the bank 6 is obliged to pay interest to the sender on the amount of the order for the 7 number of days elapsing after the execution date to the earlier of the day the 8 order is canceled pursuant to KRS 355.4A-211(4) or the day the sender
9 receives notice or learns that the order was not executed, counting the final 10 day of the period as an elapsed day. If the withdrawable credit balance during 11 that period falls below the amount of the order, the amount of interest is 12 reduced accordingly.

13 (3) If a receiving bank suspends payments, all unaccepted payment orders issued to it 14 are deemed rejected at the time the bank suspends payments.

15 (4) (a) Acceptance of a payment order precludes a later rejection of the order.

16 (b) Rejection of a payment order precludes a later acceptance of the order.

17 ➔Section 33. KRS 355.4A-211 is amended to read as follows:

18 (1) (a) A communication of the sender of a payment order canceling or amending the 19 order may be transmitted to the receiving bank orally~~[, electronically,]~~ or in a
20 record~~[writing]~~.

21 (b) If a security procedure is in effect between the sender and the receiving bank, 22 the communication is not effective to cancel or amend the order unless the 23 communication is verified pursuant to the security procedure or the bank
24 agrees to the cancellation or amendment.

25 (2) Subject to subsection (1) of this section, a communication by the sender canceling 26 or amending a payment order is effective to cancel or amend the order if notice of 27 the communication is received at a time and in a manner affording the receiving

1 bank a reasonable opportunity to act on the communication before the bank accepts
2 the payment order.

3 (3) (a) After a payment order has been accepted, cancellation or amendment of the 4 order is not effective unless the receiving bank agrees or a funds-transfer 5 system rule allows cancellation or amendment without agreement of the bank.

6 ~~(b)~~~~(a)~~ With respect to a payment order accepted by a receiving bank other than 7 the beneficiary's bank, cancellation or amendment is not effective unless a 8 conforming cancellation or amendment of the payment order issued by the 9 receiving bank is also made.

10 ~~(c)~~~~(b)~~ With respect to a payment order accepted by the beneficiary's bank, 11 cancellation or amendment is not effective unless the order was issued in 12 execution of an unauthorized payment order, or because of a mistake by a 13 sender in the funds transfer which resulted in the issuance of a payment order:

- 14 1. That is a duplicate of a payment order previously issued by the sender;
- 15 2. That orders payment to a beneficiary not entitled to receive payment 16 from the originator; or
- 17 3. That orders payment in an amount greater than the amount the 18 beneficiary was entitled to receive from the originator. If the payment 19 order is canceled or amended, the beneficiary's bank is entitled to 20 recover from the beneficiary any amount paid to the beneficiary to the 21 extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

22 (4) An unaccepted payment order is canceled by operation of law at the close of the 23 fifth funds-transfer business day of the receiving bank after the execution date or 24 payment date of the order.

25 (5) (a) A canceled payment order cannot be accepted.

26 (b) If an accepted payment order is canceled, the acceptance is nullified and no
27 person has any right or obligation based on the acceptance.

1 (c) Amendment of a payment order is deemed to be cancellation of the original 2 order at the time of amendment and issue of a new payment order in the 3 amended form at the same time.

4 (6) Unless otherwise provided in an agreement of the parties or in a funds-transfer 5 system rule, if the receiving bank, after accepting a payment order, agrees to 6 cancellation or amendment of the order by the sender or is bound by a funds-
 7 transfer system rule allowing cancellation or amendment without the bank's 8 agreement, the sender, whether or not cancellation or amendment is effective, is 9 liable to the bank for any loss and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees,
 10 incurred by the bank as a result of the cancellation or amendment or attempted 11 cancellation or amendment.

12 (7) A payment order is not revoked by the death or legal incapacity of the sender unless 13 the receiving bank knows of the death or of an adjudication of incapacity by a court
 14 of competent jurisdiction and has reasonable opportunity to act before acceptance 15 of the order.

16 (8) A funds-transfer system rule is not effective to the extent it conflicts with 17 subsection (3)~~(c)~~~~(b)~~ of this section.

18 ➔Section 34. KRS 355.4A-305 is amended to read as follows:

19 (1) If a funds transfer is completed but execution of a payment order by the receiving 20 bank in breach of KRS 355.4A-302 results in delay in payment to the beneficiary, 21 the bank is obliged to pay interest to either the originator or the beneficiary of the 22 funds transfer for the period of delay caused by the improper execution. Except as 23 provided in subsection (3) of this section, additional damages are not recoverable.

24 (2) If execution of a payment order by a receiving bank in breach of KRS 355.4A-302 25 results in ~~the~~

26 ~~(a)~~ noncompletion of the funds transfer, ~~the~~

27 ~~(b)~~ failure to use an intermediary bank designated by the originator, ~~the~~ or ~~the~~

1 (e) Issuance of a payment order that does not comply with the terms of the 2 payment order of the originator, the bank is liable to the originator for its 3 expenses in the funds transfer and for incidental expenses and interest losses, 4 to the extent not covered by subsection (1) of this section, resulting from the 5 improper execution. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, 6 additional damages are not recoverable.

7 (3) In addition to the amounts payable under subsections (1) and (2) of this section,
8 damages, including consequential damages, are recoverable to the extent provided 9 in an express~~written~~ agreement of the receiving bank, evidenced by a record.

10 (4) If a receiving bank fails to execute a payment order it was obliged by express 11 agreement to execute, the receiving bank is liable to the sender for its expenses in 12 the transaction and for incidental expenses and interest losses resulting from the 13 failure to execute. Additional damages, including consequential damages, are 14 recoverable to the extent provided in an express~~written~~ agreement of the 15 receiving bank, evidenced by a record, but are not otherwise recoverable.

16 (5) (a) Reasonable attorney's fees are recoverable if demand for compensation under 17 subsection (1) or (2) of this section is made and refused before an action is 18 brought on the claim.

19 (b) If a claim is made for breach of an agreement under subsection (4) of this 20 section and the agreement does not provide for damages, reasonable attorney's 21 fees are recoverable if demand for compensation under subsection (4) of this 22 section is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim.

23 (6) Except as stated in this section, the liability of a receiving bank under subsections
24 (1) and (2) of this section may not be varied by agreement.

25 ➔Section 35. KRS 355.5-104 is amended to read as follows:

26 A letter of credit, confirmation, advice, transfer, amendment, or cancellation may be 27 issued in any form that is a signed record~~and is authenticated~~.

- 1 ~~(1) By a signature; or~~
2 ~~(2) In accordance with the agreement of the parties or the standard practice referred to~~ 3 ~~in KRS 355.5-108(5)].~~

4 ➔Section 36. KRS 355.5-116 is amended to read as follows:

- 5 (1) The liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser for action or omission is 6 governed by the law of the jurisdiction chosen by an agreement in the form of a
7 record signed~~[or otherwise authenticated]~~ by the affected parties~~[in the manner~~
8 ~~provided in KRS 355.5-104]~~ or by a provision in the person's letter of credit,
9 confirmation, or other undertaking. The jurisdiction whose law is chosen need not 10 bear any relation to the transaction.

- 11 (2) Unless subsection (1) of this section applies, the liability of an issuer, nominated
12 person, or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction
13 in which the person is located. The person is considered to be located at the 14 address indicated in the person's undertaking. If more than one (1) address is 15 indicated, the person is considered to be located at the address from which the 16 person's undertaking was issued.

- 17 (3) For purposes of jurisdiction, choice of law, and recognition of interbranch letters 18 of credit, but not enforcement of a judgment, all branches of a bank are 19 considered separate juridical entities and a bank is considered to be located at the 20 place where its relevant branch is considered to be located under subsection (4) of 21 this section.

- 22 (4) A branch of a bank is considered to be located at the address indicated in the 23 branch's undertaking. If more than one (1) address is indicated, the branch is 24 considered to be located at the address from which the undertaking was issued.

- 25 (5) (a) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the liability of an issuer,
26 nominated person, or adviser is governed by any rules of custom or practice, 27 such as the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits, to which

1 the letter of credit, confirmation, or other undertaking is expressly made 2 subject.

3 (b) If ~~the~~

4 ~~(a)~~ this article would govern the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or 5 adviser under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, ~~the~~

6 ~~(b)~~ the relevant undertaking incorporates rules of custom or practice, ~~and~~ and ~~the~~

7 ~~(c)~~ there is conflict between this article and those rules as applied to that 8 undertaking, those rules govern except to the extent of any conflict with the 9 nonvariable provisions specified in KRS 355.5-103(3).

10 (6) ~~(3)~~ If there is conflict between this article and Article 3, 4, 4A, or 9 of this 11 chapter, this article governs.

12 (7) ~~(4)~~ The forum for settling disputes arising out of an undertaking within this article 13 may be chosen in the manner and with the binding effect that governing law may be 14 chosen in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

15 ➔Section 37. KRS 355.7-102 is amended to read as follows:

4 and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this article.

5 ➔Section 38. KRS 355.7-106 is amended to read as follows:

6 (1) A person has control of an electronic document of title if a system employed for 7 evidencing the transfer of interests in the electronic document reliably establishes 8 that person as the person to which the electronic document was issued or 9 transferred.

10 (2) A system satisfies subsection (1) of this section, and a person has~~is deemed to~~ 11 ~~have~~ control of an electronic document of title, if the document is created, stored, 12 and transferred~~[assigned]~~ in~~[such]~~ a manner that:

13 (a) A single authoritative copy of the document exists which is unique,
14 identifiable, and, except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (d), (e), and (f)
15 of this subsection, unalterable;

16 (b) The authoritative copy identifies the person asserting control as:

- 17 1. The person to which the document was issued; or

7 notification to the holder of the conflicting security interest;
 - 8 (c) The holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within

16 (1) A purchaser of chattel paper has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper 17 which is claimed merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest if:

15 has priority over a security interest in the instrument perfected by a method other

3 negotiated,~~[or]~~ a protected purchaser of a security, or a qualifying purchaser of a
4 controllable account, controllable electronic record, or controllable payment
5 intangible. These holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security
6 interest, even if perfected, to the extent provided in Articles 3, 7, 8, and 12~~[8]~~ of 7 this chapter.

8 (2) This article does not limit the rights of or impose liability on a person to the extent

10 this chapter.

11 (3) Filing under this article does not constitute notice of a claim or defense to the 12 holders, or purchasers, or persons described in subsections (1) and (2) of this 13 section.

14 ➔Section 73. KRS 355.9-332 is amended to read as follows:

27 or may continue in goods that become fixtures.

1 (b) A security interest does not exist under this article in ordinary building
2 materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

3 (2) This article does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures under real 4 property law.

5 (3) In cases not governed by subsections (4) to (8) of this section, a security interest in 6 fixtures is subordinate to a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the 7 related real property other than the debtor.

8 (4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (8) of this section, a perfected security 9 interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or 10 owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in 11 possession of the real property and:

12 (a) The security interest is a purchase-money security interest;

13 (b) The interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become 14 fixtures; and

15 (c) The security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become 16 fixtures or within twenty (20) days thereafter.

17 (5) A perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an

22 owner is of record; and

23 2. Has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the 24 encumbrancer or owner;

25 (b) Before the goods become fixtures, the security interest is perfected by any 26 method permitted by this article and the fixtures are readily removable:

27 1. Factory or office machines;

2 the real property; or
- 3 3. Replacements of domestic appliances that are consumer goods;

5 equitable proceedings after the security interest was perfected by any method 6 permitted by this article; or
- 7 (d) The security interest is:
- 8 1. Created in a manufactured home in a manufactured-home transaction;
9 and
- 10 2. Perfected pursuant to a statute described in KRS 355.9-311(1)(b).
- 11 (6) A security interest in fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over a

14 consented to the security interest or disclaimed an interest in the goods as 15 fixtures; or
- 16 (b) The debtor has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or 17 owner.
- 18 (7) The priority of the security interest under subsection (6)(b) of this section continues 19 for a reasonable time if the debtor's right to remove the goods as against the 20 encumbrancer or owner terminates.
- 21 (8) (a) A mortgage is a construction mortgage to the extent that it secures an 22 obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land, including 23 the acquisition cost of the land, if a recorded record of the mortgage so 24 indicates.
- 25 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (5) and (6) of this section, a 26 security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage if a 27 record of the mortgage is recorded before the goods become fixtures and the

1 goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. A mortgage
2 has this priority to the same extent as a construction mortgage to the extent
3 that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage.

4 (9) A perfected security interest in crops growing on real property has priority over a 5 conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor
6 has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property.

15 (1) Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses 16 or claims, and subject to subsections (2) to (5) of this section, the rights of an 17 assignee are subject to:

- 18 (a) All terms of the agreement between the account debtor and assignor and any 19 defense or claim in recoupment arising from the transaction that gave rise to 20 the contract; and
- 21 (b) Any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which 22 accrues before the account debtor receives a notification of the assignment
23 signed~~[authenticated]~~ by the assignor or the assignee.

24 (2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section and except as otherwise provided in 25 subsection (4) of this section, the claim of an account debtor against an assignor 26 may be asserted against an assignee under subsection (1) of this section only to 27 reduce the amount the account debtor owes.

- 1 (3) This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different
2 rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation
3 primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.
- 4 (4) In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law
5 other than this article requires that the record include a statement to the effect that 6 the account debtor's recovery against an assignee with respect to claims and 7 defenses against the assignor may not exceed amounts paid by the account debtor 8 under the record, and the record does not include such a statement, the extent to 9 which a claim of an account debtor against the assignor may be asserted against an 10 assignee is determined as if the record included such a statement.
- 11 (5) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.
- 12 ➔Section 77. KRS 355.9-406 is amended to read as follows:
- 13 (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (9) and (12) of this section, an account debtor on an 14 account, chattel paper, or a payment intangible may discharge its obligation by 15 paying the assignor until, but not after, the account debtor receives a notification, 16 signed~~authenticated~~ by the assignor or the assignee, that the amount due or to 17 become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. After 18 receipt of the notification, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by 19 paying the assignee and may not discharge the obligation by paying the assignor.
- 20 (2) Subject to subsections~~subsection~~ (8) and (12) of this section, notification is 21 ineffective under subsection (1) of this section:
- 22 (a) If it does not reasonably identify the rights assigned;
- 23 (b) To the extent that an agreement between an account debtor and a seller of a 24 payment intangible limits the account debtor's duty to pay a person other than 25 the seller and the limitation is effective under law other than this article; or
- 26 (c) At the option of an account debtor, if the notification notifies the account 27 debtor to make less than the full amount of any installment or other periodic

1 payment to the assignee, even if:

- 2 1. Only a portion of the account, chattel paper, or payment intangible has
- 3 been assigned to that assignee;

- 5 3. The account debtor knows that the assignment to that assignee is
- 6 limited.

7 (3) Subject to ~~subsections~~ subsection (8) and (12) of this section, if requested by the 8 account debtor, an assignee shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the 9 assignment has been made. Unless the assignee complies, the account debtor may 10 discharge its obligation by paying the assignor, even if the account debtor has 11 received a notification under subsection (1) of this section.

12 (4) (a) In this subsection, "promissory note" includes a negotiable instrument that 13 evidences chattel paper.

16 a term in an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor or in a 17 promissory note is ineffective to the extent that it:

18 1.[(a)] Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the account debtor or 19 person obligated on the promissory note to the assignment or transfer of,
20 or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security
21 interest in, the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory

25 rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense,
26 termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account, chattel 27 paper, payment intangible, or promissory note.

- 1 (5) Subsection (4) of this section does not apply to the sale of a payment intangible or 2 promissory note, other than a sale pursuant to a disposition under KRS 355.9-610 or 3 an acceptance of collateral under KRS 355.9-620.

6 law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a 7 government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or 8 transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, an account or chattel paper is 9 ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:
- 10 (a) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the government, governmental 11 body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or the 12 creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the 13 account or chattel paper; or
- 14 (b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, 15 perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default,
16 breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, 17 or remedy under the account or chattel paper.
- 18 (7) Subject to ~~subsections~~^{subsection} (8) and (12) of this section, an account debtor

9 the account debtor to, the assignment or transfer of, or creation, attachment, or

16 under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general 17 intangible.

18 (2) Subsection (1) of this section applies to a security interest in a payment intangible

22 (3) (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection and

26 the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, a promissory 27 note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including a

1 contract, permit, license, or franchise between an account debtor and a debtor,
2 is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

3 ~~1.(a)~~ Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security 4 interest; or

5 ~~2.(b)~~ Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation,
6 attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a 7 default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right

9 insurance receivable, or general intangible.

10 (b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply to the following statutes,

4 electronic record's jurisdiction governs the matters covered by this article.

5 (2) For a controllable electronic record that evidences a controllable account or 6 controllable payment intangible, the local law of the controllable electronic 7 record's jurisdiction governs a matter covered by Section 99 of this Act unless an 8 effective agreement determines that the local law of another jurisdiction governs.

9 (3) The following rules determine a controllable electronic record's jurisdiction
10 under this section:

11 (a) If the controllable electronic record, or a record attached to or logically 12 associated with the controllable electronic record and readily available for 13 review, expressly provides that a particular jurisdiction is the controllable 14 electronic record's jurisdiction for purposes of this article or chapter, that 15 jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction;

16 (b) If paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply and the rules of the 17 system in which the controllable electronic record is recorded are readily 18 available for review and expressly provide that a particular jurisdiction is 19 the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction for purposes of this article
20 or this chapter, that jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's
21 jurisdiction;

22 (c) If paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection do not apply and the 23 controllable electronic record, or a record attached to or logically associated 24 with the controllable electronic record and readily available for review, 25 expressly provides that the controllable electronic record is governed by the 26 law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the controllable
27 electronic record's jurisdiction;

1 (d) If paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection do not apply and the rules
2 of the system in which the controllable electronic record is recorded are 3 readily available for review and expressly provide that the controllable
4 electronic record or the system is governed by the law of a particular
5 jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's 6 jurisdiction; and

7 (e) If paragraphs (a) to (d) of this subsection do not apply, the controllable
8 electronic record's jurisdiction is the District of Columbia.

9 (4) (a) If subsection (3)(e) of this section applies and Article 12 is not in effect in 10 the District of Columbia without material modification, the governing law
11 for a matter covered by this article is the law of the District of Columbia as 12 though Article 12 were in effect in the District of Columbia without material 13 modification.

14 (b) In this subsection, "Article 12" means Article 12 of the Uniform
15 Commercial Code Amendments (2022).

16 (5) To the extent subsections (1) and (2) of this section provide that the local law of 18 article, that law governs even if the matter or a transaction to which the matter

19 relates does not bear any relation to the controllable electronic record's 20 jurisdiction.

21 (6) The rights acquired under Section 97 of this Act by a purchaser or qualifying 22 purchaser are governed by the law applicable under this section at the time of 23 purchase.
