

1 A RESOLUTION honoring the Calvary Christian School on the occasion of its 50th 2 anniversary.

3 WHEREAS, Calvary Christian School began as a ministry of Calvary Baptist 4 Church in Latonia, Kenton County, Kentucky, in November 1973; and

5 WHEREAS, on August 26, 1974, 63 students in grades one through four entered 6 Calvary Christian School for their first day, and one week later, 35 kindergarten children 7 joined grades one through four; and

8 WHEREAS, shortly after the establishment of the school, Calvary Christian School 9 secured 65 acres of land five miles south of Latonia on Taylor Mill Road.
10 Groundbreaking for its beautifully designed facility took place on July 7, 1974. The two 11 phases of the building program were completed in 2010; and

12 WHEREAS, the vision of Calvary Christian School is that students will use their 13 minds and hands to actively serve and glorify God with their whole life, wherever His 14 will leads them; and

15 WHEREAS, Calvary Christian School emphasizes a Christ-centered education
16 which continually views areas of knowledge through the perspective of God's Word, 17 magnifies the Lord Jesus, and leads children into conformity with His image; and

18 WHEREAS, Calvary Christian School currently serves over 300 students; and

19 WHEREAS, Calvary Christian School seeks to foster spiritual, academic, physical, 20 and social stewardship and growth; and

21 WHEREAS, students of Calvary Christian School have furthered the success of the 22 Commonwealth as athletes, artists, scholars, and engaged citizens; and

23 WHEREAS, over the past 50 years, Calvary Christian School has fulfilled its 24 mission statement by "equipping the next generation to impact the world for Christ";

25 NOW, THEREFORE,

26 Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of 27 Kentucky:
