➔Section 10. Whereas litigants have a constitutional right to an impartial arbiter and attorneys should not be deterred from zealously representing the best interests of their clients by requesting the disqualification of a judge to ensure this right is protected, and as the citizens of this Commonwealth have an interest in a judiciary whose impartiality in specific cases should be above reproach, an emergency is declared to exist, and Section 9 of this Act takes effect upon its passage and approval by the Governor or upon its otherwise becoming a law."
