25    lease or Section 16 of this Act, the tenant may give notice to the landlord under 26    Section 20 of this Act specifying the noncompliance. If the landlord fails to 27    remedy the noncompliance within the applicable period specified in Section 20 of 1        this Act and the reasonable cost to remedy the noncompliance does not exceed 3        noncompliance at the landlord's expense.

4        (2) A tenant that makes repairs under subsection (1) of this section is entitled to 5        recover the actual and reasonable cost incurred or the reasonable value of the 6        work performed to remedy the noncompliance, not exceeding one (1) month's 7        periodic rent. Unless the tenant has been reimbursed by the landlord, the tenant 8        may deduct the cost or value from rent after submitting to the landlord an 9        itemized statement, accompanied by receipts for purchased items and services.

10        (3) A repair under subsection (1) of this section must be made in a professional 11        manner and in compliance with applicable law.

15        family member, or guest; or

16        (b) Landlord was unable to remedy the noncompliance within the applicable 17        period specified in Section 20 of this Act because the tenant, immediate 24        an essential service the landlord has a duty to provide under subsection (2) of 25        Section 16 of this Act, the tenant may give notice to the landlord under Section 20 26        of this Act specifying the failure. If the landlord fails to provide the essential 27        service within the applicable period specified in Section 20 of this Act, the tenant

1       may:

2       (a) Take appropriate measures to secure the essential service during the period 3                   of the landlord's noncompliance and deduct the actual and reasonable cost 4                   from the rent; or 5       (b) Procure comparable substitute housing at the landlord's expense during the 6                   period of the noncompliance and recover actual damages.

7       (2) This section does not apply if the tenant's failure to receive the essential service 9                   guest.

10       → SECTION 27. KRS 383.645 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW 11       SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

12       (1) If a landlord fails to comply with the lease or Section 16 of this Act and the tenant 13                   has complied with Section 20 of this Act, the tenant may defend an action by the 14                   landlord based on nonpayment of rent on the ground that no rent was due 15                   because of the noncompliance and counterclaim for any amount the tenant may 16                   recover under the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act.

17       (2) If a tenant is in possession of the dwelling unit when the landlord files an action 18                   based on nonpayment of rent, either party may seek a court order directing the 19                   tenant to pay all or part of the unpaid rent and all additional rent as it accrues 20                   into an escrow account with the court or a bank or other entity authorized by the 21                   court to hold funds in escrow.

22       (3) If rent has been paid into escrow under this section and the court determines the 23                   landlord fully complied with the lease and Section 16 of this Act, the court shall 24                   order the immediate release to the landlord of rent held in escrow and enter 25                   judgment for any remaining rent owed.

26       (4) If rent has been paid into escrow under this section and the court determines that 27                   the landlord's noncompliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act materially

1       interferes with the health or safety of a tenant or an immediate family member or 2       the use and enjoyment of the premises by the tenant or an immediate family 3       member, the court may order one (1) or more of the following:

4       (a) Release to the landlord of all or part of the rent held in escrow to be used 5       only to bring the premises into compliance with the lease or Section 16 of 6       this Act;

7       (b) Return to the tenant of all or part of the rent held in escrow in 8       compensation for:

11           2. Actual damages;

12       (c) The tenant's continued payment of rent into escrow as rent becomes due or 13       abatement of future rent until the landlord brings the premises into 14       compliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act; and 15       (d) Payment to the landlord of any rent held in escrow not otherwise payable to 16       the tenant.

17       (5) If rent has not been paid into escrow under this section and the court determines 18       that the landlord complied with the lease and Section 16 of this Act, the court 19       shall render judgment for unpaid rent.

20       (6) If rent has not been paid into escrow under this section and the court determines 21       that the landlord's noncompliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act 22       materially interferes with the health or safety of a tenant or immediate family 23       member or the use and enjoyment of the premises by the tenant or an immediate 24       family member, the court shall render judgment for unpaid rent less any amount 25       expended by the tenant in compliance with Section 25 of this Act to repair the 26       premises and actual damages.

27       (7) In addition to the other remedies provided in this section, the court may award

1        possession or other appropriate relief if the court determines the tenant:

2        (a) Acted in bad faith in withholding rent; or 3        (b) Failed to comply with an order to pay rent into escrow under subsection (2) 4                of this section or to pay rent or other amounts owed to the landlord under 5                this section.

6        (8) The court shall not award possession if the court determines that the tenant 7                withheld rent in good faith and the tenant complies with an order to pay unpaid 8                rent into escrow or to the landlord under this section.

18    rebuttable presumption that the purpose of the landlord's conduct was retaliation.
19    (2) A presumption does not arise under subsection (1) of this section if the tenant 20    engaged in conduct described in subsection (1) of Section 40 of this Act after the 23    (3) A landlord may rebut a presumption under subsection (1) of this section by a 19                   section, the property is deemed abandoned and:

22                   disposing of the property, shall treat the proceeds as part of the tenant's 23                   security deposit; or

24                   (b) If a sale is not economically feasible, the landlord may dispose of the 25                   property in any manner the landlord considers appropriate.

26                   (8) A landlord that complies with this section is not liable to the tenant or another 27                   person for a claim arising from removal of personal property from the premises.

11 ➔ SECTION 51. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO

23 (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) of this section, if a tenant or immediate family 24 member is a victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or 25 sexual assault and the tenant has a reasonable fear that the perpetrator or other 26 person acting on the perpetrator's behalf may attempt to gain access to the 27 dwelling unit, the tenant, without the landlord's consent, may cause the locks or

1        other security devices for the unit to be changed or rekeyed in a professional 2        manner and shall give a key or other means of access for the new locks or 3        security devices to the landlord and any other tenant, other than the perpetrator, 4        that is a party to the lease.

5        (2) If locks or other security devices are changed or rekeyed under subsection (1) of 6        this section, the landlord may change or rekey them, at the tenant's expense, to 7        ensure compatibility with the landlord's master key or other means of access or 8        otherwise accommodate the landlord's reasonable commercial needs.

9        (3) If a perpetrator is a party to the lease, locks or other security devices shall not be 10        changed or rekeyed under subsection (1) of this section unless a court order, 11        other than an ex parte order, expressly requires that the perpetrator vacate the 12        dwelling unit or restrains the perpetrator from contact with the tenant or 13        immediate family member and a copy of the order has been given to the landlord.

14        (4) A perpetrator shall not recover actual damages or other relief against a landlord 15        or tenant resulting from the exercise of a right by the landlord or tenant under 16        this section.

18        READ AS FOLLOWS:

19        (1) On issuance of a court order requiring a perpetrator to vacate a dwelling unit 20        because of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual 21        assault, other than an ex parte order, neither the landlord nor tenant has a duty 22        to:

23        (a) Allow the perpetrator access to the unit unless accompanied by a law 24        enforcement officer; or 25        (b) Provide the perpetrator with any means of access to the unit.

26        (2) If a perpetrator is a party to the lease, on issuance of a court order requiring the 27        perpetrator to vacate the dwelling unit, other than an ex parte order, the

1 perpetrator's interest under the lease terminates, and the landlord and any 2 remaining tenant may recover from the perpetrator actual damages resulting 3 from the termination.

4 (3) Termination of a perpetrator's interest under a lease under this section does not
5 terminate the interest of any other tenant under the lease or alter the obligations 6 of any other tenant under the lease.

7 (4) A landlord is not required to return to a perpetrator whose interest under the 8 lease terminates under this section or to any remaining tenant any security 9 deposit or unearned rent until the lease terminates with respect to all tenants.

10 ➔ SECTION 54. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO 11 READ AS FOLLOWS:

12 (1) If a landlord has a reasonable belief that a tenant or immediate family member is 13 the victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual 14 assault and another tenant of the same landlord who resides in the same building 15 as the tenant is the perpetrator, the landlord may terminate the perpetrator's 16 interest in the lease by giving the perpetrator notice in a record that the 17 perpetrator's interest will terminate immediately or on a later specified date, 18 which is not later than thirty (30) days after notice is given. The notice must state 19 that the landlord has a reasonable belief that the perpetrator has committed an 20 act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault and the 21 approximate date of the act.

22 (2) Before giving notice to a perpetrator under subsection (1) of this section, the 23 landlord shall give notice of the landlord's intent to terminate the perpetrator's 24 interest to the tenant who was the victim of the act of domestic violence, dating 25 violence, stalking, or sexual assault or whose immediate family member was the 26 victim. This notice may be given by any means reasonably calculated to reach the 27 tenant, including oral communication, notice in a record, or notice sent to the

1        tenant at any other address at which the landlord reasonably believes the tenant 2        is located.

3        (3) Failure of a tenant to receive the notice of the landlord's intent to terminate the 4        perpetrator's interest under subsection (2) of this section does not affect the 5        landlord's right to terminate under this section or expose the landlord to any 6        liability.

7        (4) If a landlord terminates a perpetrator's interest under a lease under this section, 8        any other tenant under the lease may recover from the perpetrator actual 9        damages resulting from the termination.

10        (5) Termination of a perpetrator's interest under a lease under this section does not
11        terminate the interest of any other tenant under the lease or alter the obligations 12        of any other tenant under the lease.

13        (6) A landlord is not required to return to a perpetrator whose interest under a lease 14        is terminated under this section or to any other tenant under the lease any 15        security deposit or unearned rent until the lease terminates with respect to all 16        tenants.

17        (7) In an action between a landlord and tenant involving the right of the landlord to 18        terminate the tenant's interest under this section, the landlord must prove by a 19        preponderance of the evidence that the landlord had a reasonable belief that the 20        tenant was a perpetrator.

22        READ AS FOLLOWS:

23        (1) As used in this section, "tenant" includes an applicant seeking to enter into a 24        lease with a landlord.

25        (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, a landlord 26        shall not do or threaten to do any act in subsection (2) of Section 40 of this Act if 27        the landlord's purpose for engaging in the conduct is that:

1                   (a) An act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault 2                   committed against the tenant or immediate family member resulted in a 3                   violation of the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act by the tenant; or 4                   (b) A complaint of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or 5                   sexual assault committed against the tenant or immediate family member 6                   resulted in a law enforcement or emergency response.

7                   (3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, a landlord shall not 8                   refuse or threaten to refuse to rent a dwelling unit if the landlord's purpose for 9                   the refusal or threat is that a tenant or an immediate family member is or has 10                   been the victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual 11                   assault.

12                   (4) Evidence that any of the events described in subsection (2) or (3) of this section 13                   occurred within six (6) months before the landlord's conduct creates a 14                   presumption that the purpose of the landlord's conduct was retaliation. The 15                   landlord may rebut the presumption by a preponderance of evidence showing that 16                   the landlord had sufficient justification for engaging in the conduct described in 17                   subsection (2) or (3) of this section and would have engaged in the conduct in the 18                   same manner and at the same time regardless whether the events described in 19                   subsection (2) or (3) of this section occurred.

20                   (5) A landlord may terminate the lease of a tenant by giving the tenant notice in a 21                   record that the lease will terminate on a date specified in the notice, which must 22                   be at least thirty (30) days after notice is given if:

23                   (a) Without the landlord's permission, the tenant invited a perpetrator onto the 24                   premises or allowed a perpetrator to occupy the dwelling unit:

25                   1. After the landlord gave the tenant notice in a record to refrain from 26                   inviting the perpetrator onto the premises; or 27                   2. During a time the tenant knows the perpetrator is subject to a no-contact court order or a court order barring the perpetrator from the premises; and

(b) The landlord demonstrates that:

1. There is an actual and imminent threat to the health or safety of any individual on the premises, the landlord, or the landlord's agent if the lease is not terminated; or

2. The perpetrator has damaged the premises.

(6) If a landlord willfully violates subsection (2) or (3) of this section, the tenant or prospective tenant may recover three (3) times the periodic rent or three (3) times actual damages, whichever is greater, and:

(a) Terminate the lease;

(b) Defend an action for possession on the ground that the landlord violated subsection (2) of this section; or

(c) Obtain appropriate injunctive relief.

16 READ AS FOLLOWS:

19 (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, a landlord 20 shall not require the tenant to pay or agree to pay a security deposit, prepaid rent, 21 or any combination thereof, in an amount that exceeds two (2) times the periodic 22 rent.

23     (3) The limit established in subsection (2) of this section does not include the first 24            month's rent or fees.

25        (4) Except as otherwise provided by law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, if a 26        tenant keeps a pet on the premises or is permitted by the lease to make alterations 27        to the premises, the landlord may require the tenant to pay an additional security

1        deposit in an amount commensurate with the additional risk of damage to the 2        premises.

4        READ AS FOLLOWS:

5        (1) The following rules apply to a landlord's interest in a security deposit:

6        (a) The landlord's interest is limited to a security interest;

7        (b) Notwithstanding law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, the landlord's 8        security interest is effective against and has priority over each creditor of 9        and transferee from the tenant; and 10        (c) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, a creditor of and transferee from 11        the landlord can acquire no greater interest in a security deposit than the 12        interest of the landlord.

13        (2) The following rules apply to a tenant's interest in a security deposit:

14        (a) Notwithstanding law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, the tenant's 15        interest has priority over any right of setoff the bank in which the account is 16        maintained may have for obligations owed to the bank other than charges 17        normally associated with the bank's maintenance of the account;

18        (b) The tenant's interest is not adversely affected if the deposit is commingled 19        with the deposits of other tenants; and 20        (c) The effect of commingling other than that allowed in paragraph (b) of this 21        subsection is determined by law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act.

22        (3) Subsection (1)(c) of this section does not abrogate generally applicable rules of 23        law enabling a transferee of funds to take the funds free of competing claims.

25        READ AS FOLLOWS:

26        (1) With respect to funds constituting a security deposit, a landlord:

27        (a) Shall maintain the ability to identify the funds;

1        1. By holding the funds in a bank account that is used exclusively for 2        security deposits, that is maintained with a bank doing business in this 3        Commonwealth, and the title of which indicates that it contains 4        security deposits; and 5        2. By maintaining records that indicate at all times the amount of the 6        funds attributable to each tenant whose funds are being held in the 7        account; and

8        (b) May commingle the funds received from other tenants as security deposits 9        in the same bank account but shall not commingle other funds, including 10        the landlord's personal or business funds, in the account.

11        (2) If a landlord fails to comply with subsection (1) of this section, the tenant may 12        recover actual damages or damages equal to one (1) times the periodic rent, 13        whichever is greater.

14        (3) A bank in which a landlord deposits funds constituting a security deposit has no 15        duty to ensure that the landlord properly applies the funds.

16        (4) Unless a lease provides otherwise, the landlord is not required to deposit a 17        security deposit into an interest-bearing account or to pay the tenant interest on 18        the deposit.

19        ➔ SECTION 59. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO 20        READ AS FOLLOWS:

21        (1) After termination of a lease, the tenant is entitled to the amount by which the 22        security deposit and any unearned rent exceeds the amount the landlord is owed 23        under the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act.

24        (2) Not later than thirty (30) days after a lease terminates and the tenant vacates the 25        premises, the landlord shall determine the amount the landlord believes the 26        tenant is entitled to under subsection (1) of this section and:

27        (a) Tender that amount to the tenant or, if the tenant has died, the tenant

1                   representative;

2                   (b) Send that amount by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to an address 3                   provided by the tenant or, if the tenant has died, the tenant representative 4                   or, in the absence of that address, to the relevant address specified in 5                   Section 8 of this Act; or 6                   (c) Cause a funds transfer in that amount to be made, with the cost of transfer 7                   paid, to a bank account designated by the tenant or, if the tenant has died, 8                   the tenant's representative.

9                   (3) If the amount under subsection (2) of this section is less than the sum of the 11                   tenant or tenant representative, within the period specified under subsection (2) 12                   of this section, a record specifying each item of property damage or other

15                   (4) If the amount to which the tenant is entitled under subsection (1) of this section is 16                   greater than the amount paid to the tenant or tenant representative, the tenant or 17                   tenant representative may recover the difference.

18                   (5) If a landlord fails to comply with subsection (2) or (3) of this section, the court 19                   may award the tenant or tenant's representative, in addition to any amount 20                   recoverable under subsection (4) of this section, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 21                   or two (2) times the amount recoverable under subsection (4) of this section, 22                   whichever is greater, unless the landlord's only noncompliance was the failure to 23                   comply with subsection (2)(b) of this section as a result of the inadvertent failure 24                   to pay the cost of postage or transmission or to use the proper address.

25                   (6) If a security deposit and unearned rent held by a landlord are insufficient to 26                   satisfy the tenant's obligations under the lease and Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, 27                   the landlord may recover from the tenant the amount necessary to satisfy those

1        obligations.

2        ➔ SECTION 60. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO
3        READ AS FOLLOWS:

4        (1) When a landlord's interest in the premises terminates, the landlord shall:

5        (a) If the lease continues, not later than thirty (30) days after the termination of 6        the landlord's interest, transfer to the person succeeding the landlord's 7        interest in the premises any security deposit being held by the landlord and 8        notify the tenant in a record of the successor's name and address, the 12        interest, comply with Section 59 of this Act.

13        (2) If a landlord dies before the termination of the lease, the personal representative 14        of the landlord's estate becomes the landlord until the premises are distributed to
