

1 AN ACT relating to the display of the Ten Commandments in schools.

2 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

3 ➔SECTION 1. KRS 158.178 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ
4 AS FOLLOWS:

5 (1) The General Assembly finds that:

6 (a) In 2005, the Supreme Court of the United States recognized that it is 7 permissible to display the Ten Commandments on government property in 8 Van Orden v. Perry, 545 U.S. 677 (2005);

9 (b) In 2019, the Supreme Court of the United States further recognized that the 10 Ten Commandments "have historical significance as one of the foundations
11 of our legal system...." in American Legion v. American Humanist
12 Association, 588 U.S. 29 (2019), and also ruled that the display of the Ten 13 Commandments on public property may have "multiple purposes" such as 14 "historical significance" and to represent a "common cultural heritage";

15 (c) Recognizing the historical role of the Ten Commandments accords with our 16 nation's history and faithfully reflects the understanding of the founders of 17 our nation with respect to the necessity of civic morality to a functional self-
18 government;

19 (d) Including the Ten Commandments in the education of our children is part 20 of our state and national history, culture, and tradition;

21 (e) The text of the Ten Commandments set forth in this section is identical to 22 the text of the Ten Commandments monument that was upheld by the 23 Supreme Court of the United States in Van Orden v. Perry, 545 U.S. 677
24 (2005);

25 (f) The Mayflower Compact of 1620 was America's first written constitution
26 and made a Covenant with Almighty God to "form a civil body politic."
27 This was the first purely American document of self-governance and

1 affirmed the link between civil society and God;

2 (g) The decision set forth by the Supreme Court of the United States in Van
3 Orden v. Perry, 545 U.S. 677 (2005) ensures that the students in our public 4 schools may understand and appreciate the foundational documents of our 5 state and national government;

6 (h) The Supreme Court of the United States acknowledged that the Ten
7 Commandments may be displayed on local government property when a 8 private donation is made for the purchase of the historical monument in 9 Pleasant Grove City, Utah v. Summum, 555 U.S. 460 (2009); and

10 (i) It is the intent of the General Assembly that this section shall not create an 11 unfunded mandate, and local boards of education are encouraged to use 12 documents that are printed and made available to the schools free of 13 charge.

14 (2) No later than January 1, 2027, a public school or public charter school shall 15 conspicuously display the Ten Commandments in each classroom. The nature of 16 the display shall be determined by each school with a minimum requirement that 17 the text of the Ten Commandments:

18 (a) Be displayed on a poster or framed document that is at least sixteen (16)
19 inches by twenty (20) inches;

20 (b) Be the central focus of the poster or framed document and shall be printed
21 in a large, easily readable font;

22 (c) Read as follows:

23 "The Ten Commandments

24 I AM the LORD thy God.

25 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

26 Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven images.

27 Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain.

1                   Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.
2           Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the
3                   Lord thy God giveth thee.
4                   Thou shalt not kill.
5                   Thou shalt not commit adultery.
6                   Thou shalt not steal.
7           Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
8                   Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house.
9           Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor 10                   his cattle, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.'; and 11           (d) Contain a context statement, as follows:
12                   "The History of the Ten Commandments in American Public Education
13           The Ten Commandments were a prominent part of American public education for 14           almost three centuries. Around the year 1688, The New England Primer became the 15           first published American textbook and was the equivalent of a first grade reader. The 16           New England Primer was used in public schools throughout the United States for more
17           than one hundred fifty years to teach Americans to read and contained more than forty 18           questions about the Ten Commandments. The Ten Commandments were also included
19           in public school textbooks published by educator William McGuffey, a noted university
20           president and professor. A version of his famous McGuffey Readers was written in the 21           early 1800s and became one of the most popular textbooks in the history of American
22           education, selling more than one hundred million copies. Copies of the McGuffey
23           Readers are still available today. The Ten Commandments also appeared in textbooks
24           published by Noah Webster which were widely used in American public schools along 25           with America's first comprehensive dictionary that Webster also published. His 26           textbook, The American Spelling Book, contained the Ten Commandments and sold 27           more than one hundred million copies for use by public school children all across the

1 nation and was still available for use in American public schools in the year 1975."

2 (3) A public school or public charter school shall not use public funds to purchase
3 the displays required by this section. A public school or public charter school
4 shall only accept donated displays that meet the requirements of this section.

5 (4) The Kentucky Department of Education shall:

6 (a) Adopt administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to
7 ensure the proper enforcement of this section; and

8 (b) Identify appropriate resources to comply with this section that are free of 9 charge. Once identified, the department shall list the free resources on the 10 department's website.

11 ➔SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 164 IS CREATED TO 12 READ AS FOLLOWS:

13 (1) No later than January 1, 2027, a public postsecondary education institution shall 14 conspicuously display the Ten Commandments in each classroom of the 15 institution.

16 (2) The text of the Ten Commandments shall follow the same minimum requirements
17 as public schools and public charter schools as established in subsection (2) of 18 Section 1 of this Act.

19 (3) A public postsecondary education institution shall not use public funds to 20 purchase the displays required by this section and shall only accept donated 21 displays that meet the requirements of this section.

22 (4) The Council on Postsecondary Education shall:

23 (a) Adopt administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to
24 ensure the proper enforcement of this section; and

25 (b) Identify appropriate resources to comply with this section that are free of 26 charge. Once identified, the department shall list the free resources on the 27 council's website.

1        ➔Section 3. KRS 158.195 is amended to read as follows:

- 2        (1) (a) Local boards shall require each public elementary and secondary school to
3                display the national motto of the United States, "In God We Trust," in a 4                prominent location in the school.
- 5        (b) The display required in paragraph (a) of this subsection may take the form of 6                but is not limited to a mounted plaque or student artwork.
- 7        (2) As used in this section, "prominent location" means a school entryway, cafeteria, or 8                common area where students are likely to see an item on display.
- 9        (3) Local boards may allow any teacher or administrator in a public school district of 10               the Commonwealth to read or post in a public school building, classroom, or event
11               any excerpts or portions of any or all of the following historically significant 12               documents: the national motto; the national anthem; the pledge of allegiance; the 13               preamble to the Kentucky Constitution; the Declaration of Independence; the 14               Mayflower Compact; the Ten Commandments, in addition to the display required
15               by Section 1 of this Act; the writings, speeches, documents, and proclamations of 16               the founding fathers and presidents of the United States; United States Supreme 17               Court decisions; and acts of the United States Congress including the published text
18               of the Congressional Record. There shall be no content-based censorship of 19               American history or heritage in the Commonwealth based on religious references in 20               these writings, documents, and records.
- 21        (4) Beginning in the 2025-2026 school year, local boards shall require each public 22               school building that contains instructional space for students in grades six (6)
23               through twelve (12) to conspicuously display in a prominent location, in both 24               English and Spanish, a printed abstract of KRS 339.210 to 339.450, a list of the 25               limited or prohibited occupations for minors, and a notice stating the working hours
26               per day for each day of the week permissible for minors to work. The same
27               information or display shall also be posted on a district's or school's website.
