

1 A RESOLUTION designating January 6th, as Breaking Free With Ally Day.

2 WHEREAS, the safety, dignity, and well-being of children and vulnerable 3 individuals are fundamental responsibilities shared by our entire community; and

4 WHEREAS, grooming, childhood sexual abuse, and human trafficking are serious 5 crimes that cause profound and lasting harm to victims, families, and communities; and

6 WHEREAS, increasing public awareness, promoting prevention education, and 7 encouraging early intervention are essential steps in protecting children and preventing 8 exploitation; and

9 WHEREAS, Breaking Free With Ally is a nonprofit organization committed to 10 raising awareness about grooming, childhood sexual abuse, and human trafficking, 11 providing education and resources, and empowering individuals and communities to 12 recognize warning signs and take action to prevent exploitation; and

13 WHEREAS, community partnerships among families, educators, faith leaders, law 14 enforcement, service providers, and nonprofit organizations are critical in strengthening 15 prevention efforts and supporting survivors; and

16 WHEREAS, designating a day to recognize and support these efforts will 17 encourage open conversations, education, prevention initiatives, and a unified 18 commitment to safeguarding children and vulnerable individuals; and

19 WHEREAS, Kentucky urges all residents to learn the signs of grooming and 20 exploitation, support prevention and awareness efforts, and work together to protect 21 children and vulnerable individuals from abuse and trafficking;
