

To meet a possible influx of primary voters and in addition to additional ballots, clerks might need additional precinct workers. Precinct workers historically have been paid the statutory minimum of $60 to as much as $200 per day plus a training day for which the precinct workers are paid a statutory minimum of $10 or more. KRS 117.343, does provide for reimbursement of 0.50 per registered voter to the counties for the cost of employing personnel necessary to conduct elections.

The attached table details the number of independent registrants per county as of November, 2020. It also provides the number of voters who are registered not as a Democrat, Republican, or independent, but as Other, Libertarian, Green, Constitution, Reform, and Socialist Workers.
