Part II: Bill Provisions and the Estimated Fiscal Impact Relating to Local Government

HB 357 GA proposes to add a new section to KRS Chapter 237 to prohibit local governments from maintaining a list, record, or registry of privately owned firearms or any list, record, or registry of the owners of the firearms, except for those records kept during the regular course of a criminal investigation and prosecution or as otherwise required by law.

The fiscal impact of HB 357 GA on local governments is expected to be minimal.

The Kentucky League of Cities indicated currently no city is collecting this information and HB 357 GA does not conflict with any current practices.

The Kentucky Association of Counties was contacted for input. As of the submission of this Local Mandate Statement, a response has not been received. When a response is received, the statement may be updated accordingly.
