Persons who are determined to have felony or misdemeanor convictions involving violence, dishonesty, or moral turpitude may be rejected for appointment, or have their appointment as a third-party CDL skills test examiner revoked.

Section 3. Third-Party CDL Skills Test Examiner Mandatory Training Requirements.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, persons appointed as a third-party CDL skills test examiner shall successfully complete the initial forty (40) hours of CDL skills test examiner training conducted by KSP and pass all exams associated with the training. This training shall be approved by AAMVA and FMCSA. Certificates of completion shall be issued by KSP upon successful completion of this training;

(b) Persons who have previously administered CDL skills tests for KSP and who have completed this training within the past two (2) years shall be waived from this training requirement.

(2) Third-party skills test examiners shall attend and successfully complete an annual ten (10) hour in-service training conducted by KSP.

(3) Third-party skills test examiners shall participate in the certification process for CDL examiners administered through AAMVA. This certification shall be sought and maintained through KSP. It shall be the responsibility of the third-party skills test examiner to pay all fees charged by AAMVA to obtain and maintain this certification. Failure to obtain this certification within two (2) years from the date of appointment as a third-party CDL skills test examiner shall be grounds for revocation of appointment.

(4) Third-party CDL skills test examiners shall be issued identification cards and a unique examiner identification number that identifies them as a CDL examiner. The identification card shall be carried and produced upon request of KSP. The examiner identification number shall be recorded by the third-party CDL skills test examiner on all CDL examination reports and related documents required by KSP to be completed by the examiner in the course of their duties.

(5) Third-party CDL skills test examiners shall conduct CDL skills tests in a uniform approved by KSP. KSP shall not be responsible for the purchase or maintenance costs for this uniform.

Section 4. Additional CDL Skills Test Requirements.

(1) Third-party skills tests examiners shall comply with 49 C.F.R. 383.75, Subparts G and H.

(2) Third-party CDL skills test examiners shall, without deviation, administer the CDL skills test in accordance with the AAMVA's 2005 CDL Test System Model CDL Examiner's Manual (July 2010 version or newer).

(3) Third-party CDL skills test examiners shall record the CDL applicant's skills test scores.

(4) Third-party CDL skills test examiners shall be required to keep and maintain files pertaining to CDL tests that they have administered for a period of two (2) years. These records shall be subject to inspection by KSP or any other state or federal entity performing an audit of these records.

(5) Third-party skills test examiners shall be subject annually to at least one (1) check ride every two (2) years performed by an official observer who, at the direction of KSP, shall ride with the examiner and observe the CDL skills test as it is given to ensure the examiner is administering the test in full compliance with all federal and state laws and administrative regulations.

(6) Third-party CDL skills test examiners shall be subject to "select tests" conducted by KSP. These tests shall consist of the CDL applicant being retested not later than two (2) days following the original test administered by the third-party CDL skills test examiner, utilizing commercial vehicle equipment provided by or on the behalf of the CDL skills test applicant at no cost to KSP. The retest results shall then be compared to verify that there are no deficiencies with the original test given by the third-party CDL skills test examiner. If the two (2) test scores differ, making a difference as to whether the CDL applicant passed or failed, the score given by KSP on its retest shall be entered into the official record as the actual score of the CDL applicant.

(7) Third-party CDL skills test examiners shall be subject to random inspection testing by KSP or FMCSA. These tests may consist of the third-party CDL skills test examiner administering a CDL skills test to a CDL applicant who is an agent of KSP or FMCSA without the examiner's knowledge of the individual's true identity.

(8) Third-party CDL examiners shall be subject to monitoring of their testing processes by KSP or FMCSA to ensure compliance with all federal and state laws and administrative regulations.

Section 5. Prohibited Conflicts of Interest.

(1) A third-party CDL skills test examiner shall not administer a CDL skills test to a CDL applicant who is a family member or who has received commercial truck driving instruction training at a commercial truck driving school that is owned or operated by a family member.

(2) A third-party CDL skills test examiner shall not administer a CDL skills test to a CDL applicant with whom the examiner is involved in a dating, romantic, or other type of intimate personal relationship, regardless of whether the examiner and applicant share a residence.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, a third-party CDL skills test examiner who administers CDL skills tests under a contractual agreement with KSP and who is a present or former commercial truck driving school employee, shall not administer third-party CDL skills test exams to any CDL applicant who has attended a commercial truck driving school as a student of the examiner's present or former employer;

(b) Once a third-party CDL skills test examiner has ceased employment with a commercial truck driving school for at least one (1) year, the examiner may be authorized to administer CDL skills test exams to CDL applicants who are commercial truck driving students of their former employer, if KSP determines that the examiner can administer the exam in a fair, unbiased, and legal manner as prescribed by the FMCSA, 49 C.F.R. Parts 383 and 384.

Section 6. Revocation of Appointment. Failure to comply with the requirements of this administrative regulation shall be grounds for revocation of appointment as a third-party CDL skills test examiner by KSP and shall further constitute good cause for termination of KSP's contractual obligations with examiners who administer CDL skills test pursuant to contract.

Section 7. Third-Party CDL Skills Test Examiner Records. All records pertaining to selection and appointment of third-party CDL skills test examiners shall be maintained by KSP. These records shall be reviewed prior to renewing CDL third-party CDL skills test examiner appointment, whether by Memorandum of Agreement with DOE or contractual agreement with other third-party CDL skills test examiners.
