Section 3. Procedures.

If the action or conduct of the first line supervisor is the basis of an employee's grievance, the grievance may be filed with the second line supervisor.
- (2) An employee shall state in writing the basis of the employee's grievance or complaint together with the corrective action desired. If an employee wishes to submit additional information or documentation, the employee may attach it to the Grievance Form.

The appointing authority, upon investigation, shall issue findings and a final determination in writing to the employee within twenty (20) work days.

(4) Unless the time limits have been extended by agreement of the parties, failure of supervisory or management personnel to respond within the established time limits shall automatically advance the grievance to the next review level.
