

13 KAR 2:025. College preparatory education.

RELATES TO: KRS 164.001, 164.002, 164.098

STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 164.020(29), 164.098(1)

NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 164.098(1) requires the Council on Postsecondary Education to promulgate an administrative regulation requiring public postsecondary educational institutions, beginning with the 2003-2004 school year, to grant academic college credit toward graduation for students taking high school advanced placement courses and scoring at a certain level. This administrative regulation establishes the requirements for receiving college credit by students taking the high school advanced placement examination.

Section 1. Definitions.

- (1) "Advanced placement" is defined by KRS 164.002(1).
- (2) "AP exam" or "College Board Advanced Placement Examination" is defined by KRS 164.002(3).
- (3) "Council" means the Council on Postsecondary Education as defined in KRS 164.011.
- (4) "Institution" means a public postsecondary educational institution listed in KRS 164.001(16).

Section 2. College and University Academic Credit for AP Examination.

- (1) Effective with the 2003-04 academic year, an institution shall grant academic credit toward college graduation for a high school student who scores three (3) or higher on the AP exam.
 - (2) An institution shall develop, by January 1, 2003, a written policy to implement the requirement of subsection (1) of this section.
 - (a) The written policy shall specify whether the institution shall grant academic credit toward the requirements of a major, program, or degree and shall state:
 1. What AP exams will be accepted toward academic credit toward a major, program or degree; and
 2. The minimum acceptable score on the AP exam for granting the academic credit toward a major, program or degree.
 - (b) The written policy shall fully comply with subsection (1) of this section.
 - (3) An institution shall submit to the council, by January 1, 2003, the policy developed pursuant to this administrative regulation.
 - (4) An institution shall publish and disseminate the policy developed in subsection (2) of this section in electronic and print form.
