RELATES TO: KRS 161.020, 161.028, 161.030, 161.053, 334A.020, 334A.033, 334A.035, 334A.060, 334A.190

STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 161.028, 161.030, 161.053

NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 161.020, 161.028, and 161.030 require that teachers and other professional school personnel hold certificates of legal qualifications for their respective positions to be issued upon completion of programs of preparation and other requirements prescribed by the Education Professional Standards Board. KRS 161.030 requires that a teacher education institution be approved for offering the preparation program corresponding to a particular certificate on the basis of standards and procedures established by the Education Professional Standards Board. KRS 161.053 requires the Education Professional Standards Board to promulgate administrative regulations to establish requirements relating to certification of teachers of exceptional children/communication disorders. This administrative regulation establishes the certificates for teachers of exceptional children/communication disorders and the corresponding standards and procedures for program approval.

Section 1. A student who meets the deadlines established in subsection (5) of this section shall meet the requirements established in this section for a standard certificate.

(1) The standard certificate for teachers of exceptional children and youth - communication disorders shall be issued in accordance with the pertinent Kentucky statutes and Education Professional Standards Board administrative regulations to an applicant who has completed the approved program of preparation which corresponds to the certificate at a teacher education institution approved under the standards and procedures included in 16 KAR 5:010.

(a) The standard certificate for teachers of exceptional children and youth - communication disorders shall be issued in accordance with the testing and internship provisions of KRS 161.030, 16 KAR 6:010, and 16 KAR 7:010.

(b) Upon successful completion of the beginning teacher internship, the certificate shall be:

1. Extended for the remainder of a five (5) year period; and
2. Renewed for subsequent five (5) year periods upon completion by September 1 of the year of expiration of:
 - a. Three (3) years of successful experience as a teacher of communication disorders; or
 - b. At least six (6) semester hours of credit or the equivalent in PSDU's or CEU's, as defined in 16 KAR 8:021.

(3) The standard certificate for teachers of exceptional children and youth - communication disorders shall be valid at all age levels for the instruction of exceptional children and youth with communication disorders.

(4) The standard certificate for teachers of exceptional children and youth - communication disorders shall be issued to an applicant who has completed a master's degree in communication or speech language pathology.

(5) A student enrolled in an approved preparation program leading to the standard certificate for teachers of exceptional children and youth - communication disorders shall complete all required coursework by September 1, 2000 and apply for certification by December 31, 2000. A student failing to meet these deadlines shall complete the preparation and certification requirements established in Section 2 of this administrative regulation.

Section 2. A student who does not meet the deadlines established in Section 1(5) of this administrative regulation shall meet the requirements established in this section for a professional certificate.

(1) The professional certificate for teachers of exceptional children/communication disorders shall be issued in accordance with the pertinent Kentucky statutes and Education Professional Standards Board administrative regulations to an applicant who has completed the approved program of preparation which corresponds to the certificate at a teacher education institution approved under the standards and procedures included in 16 KAR 5:010.

(2) The professional certificate for teachers of exceptional children/communication disorders shall be issued in accordance with the testing and internship provisions of KRS 161.030, 16 KAR 6:010, and 16 KAR 7:010. Upon successful completion of the beginning teacher internship, the certificate shall be extended for the remainder of the five (5) year period and shall be renewed for subsequent five (5) year periods upon completion of the renewal requirements established in 16 KAR 4:010.

(3) The professional certificate for teachers of exceptional children/communication disorders shall be valid at all age levels for the instruction of exceptional children with communication disorders.

(4) The professional certificate for teachers of exceptional children/communication disorders shall be issued to an applicant who has completed a master's degree in speech language pathology.

Section 3.

(1) Beginning July 14, 2000, the Education Professional Standards Board shall certify teachers of exceptional children/communication disorders who hold licensure as a speech-language pathology assistant issued by the Kentucky Board of Speech Language Pathology and Audiology under KRS Chapter 334A who meet the qualifications established in this section of this administrative regulation.

(2)
